EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

Events Leading Up To Issuance Of Memorial Document. The Guiding Spirit Of Lincoln's Life, "I Promise God," Was His Decision. Freed The Slaves And Saved The Nation.

THE MAN AND THE HOUR

Copyright 1922 by Kelly Miller.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22, 1922. The Emancipation Proclamation was issued September 22, 1862, to take effect four months thereafter. This was the date of the autumnal equinox which marked the transition of the Negro race from bondage to freedom. H. G. Wells selects the great Emancipator as one of the six great names of human history. The Church of the Ascension of New York City has carved in that structure the statues of the illustrious names which have contributed most to the progress of Christianity during each of the intervening nineteen hundred years of Christian history. Abraham Lincoln was chosen to represent the nineteenth century. The Emancipation Proclamation represents the crowning act of his life. When all else have been forgotten, this document will survive with the eternal freshness of perennial youth.

He sprang up as a root out of dry ground. Who shall declare his generation? When we looked upon his visage there was neither form nor comeliness that we should desire him. We did deem him stricken of God and afflicted. He was cut out of the land of the living that the land might live. He made intercessions for us and gave his life as a ransom for many, and with his stripes we are healed.

Abraham Lincoln is the one commanding moral genius that has arisen out of the western world. Material attainment, intellectual shrewdness and political talent have engrossed the chief energies of this hemisphere. Even the Christian church on this continent deteriorates towards the lower level of things concrete and material. The anti-slavery agitation [illegible] a spasm of [illegible] virtue, but, like a hasty spark, it scarcely survived the attrition which produced it. John Brown, Wm. Lloyd Garrison and Charles Sumner were filled with moral indignation against a specific wrong. But Lincoln's moral sense was instinctive and all-embracing. His reaction against wrong was not born of the heated issues of the passing hour. His moral understanding was instinctive, his ethical knowledge intuitive. "If slavery is not wrong, then nothing is wrong." This moral proposition is as clear, concise and convincing as any axiom of Euclid. When but beardless youth, he saw a man's body at auction in the slave market in New Orleans, his moral nature instinctively revolted. His ejaculation was spontaneous and prophetic: "By God, if I ever get a chance to hit this thing, I will hit it hard." And, by God, he did hit it hard thirty years later in the Emancipation Proclamation. This immortal document was formulated in his soul forty years before it was proclaimed. Whence came his love of right and hatred of wrong? It was not transmitted through inheritance or caught from the prevailing cult or absorbed from his crude environment, but, like every other good and perfect gift, it came from above. Abraham Lincoln walked and talked with God. All genius is characterized by loneliness and isolation. It shuts itself up in a nutshell like Hamlet, and yet deems itself master of infinite space. Genius is always lonely amidst a multitude and must withdraw itself to the desert place apart. It finds satisfaction in seclusion and solace and solitude. In default of human companionship, it seeks association and communion with a higher source from which it sprang. Genius communicates through the ordinary channels of companionship only that which the average man can appreciate and understand. Lincoln was lonely in the midst of his cabinet. His closest friends and advisers understood that they must stay here while he went yonder. He vouchsafed to them only as much of his secret as was appropriate to their understanding. Immediately after the battle of Antietam, it is said that with hands behind his back, he walked up and down the cabinet room, oblivious of the presence of his advisers, and indulged in inner groanings of the spirit too deep for vocal utterance. But finally he ejaculated "I promised God, I promised God, I promised God that if he would give me victory at Antietam, I would do this thing." The Emancipation Proclamation was a covenant made in Heaven. It was submitted to the cabinet for its information only as a vow already registered on high. After receiving the sanction of Heaven upon this proclamation, he no more thought of submitting it to the consideration of the council of his advisers than Moses dreamed of submitting the Ten Commandments to the approval of the host which he led.

Behold a man without animosity or [illegible] of soul. He had no special [illegible] [illegible] particular hatreds. [illegible]

UNION MEMORIAL DIAMOND JUBILEE

Seventy-Fifth Anniversary Will Be Celebrated From Oct. 22 To Nov. 5. Church Has Peculiar History Of Which Many Features Will Be Shown.

Sister Churches And Societies Are Asked To Participate.

Among the coming events, none will probably attract more attention than the seventy-fifth anniversary of the "Diamond Jubilee" which will be observed by Union Memorial Church the week of October 22, through November 5th.

This church has a peculiar history and this celebration will depict many stages of its unique existence, and churches, societies and citizens generally are invited to join in the feast which will surpass any one of the past.

The pastor, Rev. B. F. Abbott, his officers and members, are now busy with their elaborate plans. The following is an outline of the program, some of the details of which will be worked out and announced later:

Sunday, October 22—5:00 a. m., Jubilee Prayer meeting; 11:00 a. m., Jubilee Sermon by the pastor; 3:00 p. m., Men and Boys' parade and platform meeting.

Monday, October 23—Citizen's night—Bishop William A. Quayle the principal speaker.

Tuesday, October 24—Fraternity night.

Wednesday, October 25—Church night—Dr. J. N. C. Coggins, Washington, D. C., principal speaker.

Thursday, October 26—School night.

Friday, October 27—Young people's night—Dr. F. H. Butler, Epworth League Secretary, Chicago, Ill., will speak.

Saturday, October 28—Women's night.

Sunday, October 29—Union Memorial Day—A financial report from every member and from all friends. Jubilee souvenirs will be given to members and friends with the financial report. Bishop R. E. Jones will preach.

Monday, October 30—Local business night. A great parade is being arranged.

Tuesday, October 31—Halloween.

Wednesday, November 1—Music lover's night—Prof. Gerald Tyler in charge.

Thursday, November 2—Homecoming night.

Friday, November 3—Usher's Alliance night.

Saturday, November 4—Local Methodist Episcopal night.

Sunday, November 5—Good literature day—Southwestern Christian Advocate. Dr. L. King will preach.

B. F. ABBOTT, Pastor.

UNDERTAKERS ARE HELD ON DISTURBANCE CHARGE

General Fight Follows. Controversy Over Dead Body At City Hospital Last Friday.

As a result of a general disturbance and fight at City Hospital No. 2, O. L. Watson and C. L. Howell, his partner in the undertaking business are under $1000 bond each to answer charges of assault and destruction of property.

The trouble was started, according to a statement from Dr. Haskell, the Superintendent, after Watson and Howell had brought a Mrs. R. G. Pardee to the hospital to claim the body of her mother, Mrs. Emma King who had died a short while before, it being their intention of handling the funeral services. Upon arrival at the hospital and being informed of the death of her mother, Mrs. Pardee inquired why the undertaker was notified of the death before she was, and Dr. Haskell told her that no news of the death of her mother had been given out, whereupon she stated that she did not know Watson and Howell and did not want their service in the case. She said her mother had wanted Spellman to bury her. Upon being informed that Spellman's service could not be had she suggested Russell Undertaking Co.

Dr. Haskell says he did not even suggest an undertaker nor did he suggest anything against Watson and Howell, but he could say however, that Messrs. Watson and Howell had approached most of the employees at the hospital with a bribe for "first information."

Otis L. Watson says that Dr. Haskell had not been fair to them and that it was after the doctor had struck Howell that they both dragged him from the office and beat him until the police came. He denies that a knife was used on Dr. Haskell.

When asked how they got the information about Mrs. King's death, he said a telephone call. Mrs. Pardee said that Watson and Howell came to her home after she had been notified by the police that she was wanted at the hospital.

The case will be called in the Court [illegible]

CRIT CLARK AGAIN WINS NOMINATION

McChesney Fails Before The State Supreme Court To Keep Colored Man's Name Off The Ballot.

INCUMBENT HARD LOSER

This Is Fourth Victory For Clark In His Fight For Justice Of The Peace In Fourth St. Louis Dist.

"I told you I was not worried over court proceedings instituted by Harry McChesney to keep the Election Commissioners from putting my name on the ballot," was the comment of Crittenden E. Clark, when informed of the decision of the Supreme Court denying McChesney's petition which sought to restrain the Election Commissioners from printing Clark's name on the ballot to be voted upon at the November election and insert his name instead.

It will be remembered that McChesney was one of Clark's opponents in the primary for the nomination for Justice of the Peace in the Fourth District but was defeated on the face of the returns. He asked for and was granted a recount of the ballots, which resulted in a gain for Clark in most of the precincts.

Applies to Courts.

Finding himself defeated, McChesney appealed to the Election Commissioners, charging that Clark was no a resident of the district and that notwithstanding the fact that he (Clark) had been nominated by the voters of the district, he was not entitled to the office. But the Election Board ruled against McChesney, who in turn appealed to the Supreme Court. In deciding the case, the Court held that McChesney had no case inasmuch as the voters had made their choice.

Mr. Clark said he was at ease now as the case had been decided in the court of last resort. He stated that he had taken no chances in the litigation, but had employed the best legal talent in the state to look after his interest.

ANNUAL SERMON FOR PEERLESS KNIGHTS

The annual sermon of the Othello Lodge Peerless Knights will be held Sunday, Oct. 1st, 11 o'clock, at Compton Hill Baptist Church, Rev. H. H. Harris, pastor. The public is invited. S. R. Nelson master of ceremonies.

WINS A CASE AGAINST HIS WHITE NEIGHBORS

According to a report of his attorneys, Martin and Jones, the controversy between Elmer J. Carter and the so-called Kennerly Ave. Improvement Association where the latter sought to prevent Carter from moving into a flat purchased by him on Kennerly Ave. has been settled out of Court.

The Association had filed a suit to enjoin Carter from moving into the flat on the ground that the block was restricted against Colored people, but when the attorney for the defendent filed their return in the matter, the attorney for the plaintiffs saw he had no case and dismissed the case, and the keys have been turned over to the owner, Elmer J. Carter.

The case attracted a deal of attention, and the victory on the part of Carter is regarded as a victory for the race, because many of the so-called Protective Association have sprung up in different parts of the city.

DR. WILLIAM PICKENS TO ADDRESS MASS MEETING AT Y. M. C. A., SUN., 4 P. M.

Dr. William Pickens, former Dean of Morgan College, winner of Teneyck prize for oratory at Yale, Champion and advocate of race uplift, National organizer for the N. A. A. C. P., orator and scholar, will address the first big meeting of the year at Pine St. Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Those who have already heard Dr. Pickens know that a treat is in store for all who attend this meeting. Special effort is being made to make this a record breaker and a true sample of what will be the nature of the Sunday meetings which are to follow. The public is cordially invited. Special music will be an added attraction for music lovers.

DYER BILL IS DESERTED BY U. S. SENATE

Upper House Of Congress Adjourns After Measure Is Introduced And Democrats Threaten.

LOOKS LIKE CASE OF POLITICAL TRICKERY

Senator Shortridge "Kept His Word," But Waited Until Fillibustering Could Do The Most Harm.

Associated Negro Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 27.—There isn't any doubt the famed Dyer Bill is as dead as an Egyptian Mummy at least, so far as this session of Congress is concerned. It looks as though the "Bonus Bill" fiasco has literally taken out the heart of things legislative here. Whether this came as a "God-send" to the already tired and over loaded statesmen at the other end" of the avenue no one can positively tell at this time. Quite enough it is to know that the air is murky with misgivings and that even the wise ones are completely at sea as to the effect the conditions will have finally on the congressional election results in November.

That the colored brethren are mad to the very heart and the "Kitchen Cabinet" literally up in the air goes and then goes some more. "What shall we do about it?" come thick and fast from every quarter of the sections of this dear old town where the colored patriots are wont to congregate and live. Threats, except in the one Virginia district where a Republican has a fair chance to be elected are probably futile and foolish. Most everyone of influence agrees to that. But what to do and what to say are burning questions of State and momentus matters of general controversy. One's ears fairly ring to extreme discomfort from the clatter and the patter of the whole durned thing.

A Bunch Of "Politics."

It is true that Senator Shortridge kept his word and introduced the measure in the Senate last Friday afternoon. "Pat" Harrison and Senator Underwood immediately started the threatened fillibuster that has been hanging over the heads of the Republican side for the past several weeks. Thus the Republican faith has been kept up to this point. But there is other fact that the bill was brought up at a time when the fillibuster tactics threatened by the Democrats had a good chance to work to the end of possibly killing it beyond the probability of its return to life even at the next session. Looked at from an impartial point of view the whole matter has the unpleasant aspects of "politics" and a bunch of it. Any way this is the feeling of a more than goodly number of the brethren here in Washington at any rate.

Not Enough Action.

"They have truly rolled us around a barrel," declared one of the knowing ones approached for an opinion on the situation. "Speaking for myself," he continued, "I am standing on my head. As I see it we are tied hand, foot, and arms. We talk too much. They haven't called our bluff because we haven't made any. We were too cock sure that the measure would be passed at this session and we have been placing too much dependence on the efforts of professional agitators in this and other matters in recent years. Aside from the rather strong talk the Chairman of the Press Association's Committee delivered to Senator Lodge during its very memorable visit to the distinguished senatorial representative from Massachusetts, there hasn't anything been said that I can recall at this time that has the semblance of a bluff. I expect we will have to wait until next year before we can wisely show our hands concerning our future attitude on matters political. A third party might solve the problem for us but who knows now?"

They are all dressed up and nowhere to go. A really sad situation everybody is saying. Particularly sad for the "Kitchen Cabinet" whatever of misty joy it may be bringing to the other fellows in the small offices and out along the spacious highways of this city of magnificent distances and heart-breaking disillusionments. The optimistic are declaring that it will be alright the next session. The pessimist say to h—l with the whole business. And there we are standing between the devil and a very blue sea.

FINLEY WILSON PRAISED FOR WHIPPING P. BROWN

J. Finley Wilson, G. E. R., whipped editor Phil Brown a few weeks ago in Washington because Brown refused to pay his debts and called the G. E. R. vile names. DEMOCRATS ALARMED OVER LARGE NEGRO VOTE

Say, Republican Party In Missouri Is Weak And The Negro Vote Is Its Only Hope For Success. Want Race Men And Women To Think For Themselves. An Important Factor In Coming Election.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 27.

That the Democrats are worried over the success of the Republican party of this state is shown by a news item which appeared in Daily Democrat-Tribune last Monday.

The article has caused a deal of comment in political circles here, and, while obviously it aimed to point out the weakness of the Republican party of the state, yet it points out very plainly the strength of the colored man in a political way.

The article is as follows:

"How absolutely necessary it is for every Democratic man and woman in Missouri to vote at the coming election is shown by the fact that there are 121,228 negroes, 21 years old and over in the state who will not overlook this important function November 7 next. The negro vote consists of 53,352 men and 57,876 women. Failure at the 1920 election of fully 100,000 Democratic women to vote and the fact that at least 35,000 colored women then did exercise that privilege turned Missouri over to the 'mysterious stranger' who is in the saddle to stay if Democratic women fail to take an active part in the coming election.

"On primary had there been a negro in Missouri daring enough to contest for United States Senator on the Republican ticket and all of his black brothers and sisters has supported him, he would have won the nomination over R. R. Brewster of Kansas City, the nominee, by not less than 30,000. Next time that six or seven Republicans entered the senatorial contest some negro will undoubtedly get into the melee at the last moment and, with the aid of the votes of 120,000 colored electors, both sexes, in the state, pull down the heavy glory of being the 'gop' senatorial gladiator. The constitution of the United States grants this privilege to the black race, and nothing could be done legally to curb the aspiration of such an ambitious, high-soaring Etheopian. Brewster received 89,528 votes at the recent primary. With 121,000 negroes voting for a member of their race, it is at once plain what would have happened had a black man filed for the 'gop' honor.

Negro Vote Balance of Power.

In St. Louis there now are 26,181 negro males and 24,200 females 21 years old and over, a total of 60,381 entitled to vote at the coming election. This means that with the negro vote eliminated it would constantly be an even break between the Republicans and Democrats there at every election if all white electors, regardless of sex, voted. It is the negro vote which gives the Republicans their lead in that city under normal conditions. With the negro deducted, Missouri would always be Democratic by from 50,000 to 100,000.

There is, however, evidence in St. Louis and elsewhere in Missouri that the negro voters will not solidly support the Republican ticket on November 7. From information which comes from centers where black men and women predominate, fully 30,000 are determined to vote Democratic this time, from Senator James A. Reed all the way down the line, to emphatically indicate to 'gop' leaders and bosses that they are weary of being Republicans solely to vote for and help elect and put into office their white partisans brothers, and only be remembered when appointments are made with menial positions such as janitorships at $80 a month.

Negro Vote of Kansas City.

"Kansas City has 23,112 negro men and women 21 years old and over. This is half of the Kansas City Republican vote at an average local election. The negro vote of the state represents one-fifth of the Republican voting strength of Missouri. Therefore, it is figured out by leading and well-informed negroes that their race is entitled to a fifth of all the 'soft places' in Missouri, Federal and state, which are at the disposal of the party when their party wins out.

"As election draws near it is plainly more evident that fully 100,000 former Republican men and women will vote Democratic at the coming election. If the Democrats turn out solidly on November 7 every close county in the state will go Democratic. Former heavy Republican counties, such as Franklin, St. Charles, St. Louis, Gasconade, Warren, Perry and a few in the Ozarks, will return only half of the plurality they did in days when conditions were better for the 'gops.'"

GREEK LETTER FRATERNITY TO TAKE THE CITY

St. Louis Chapter Alpha Phi Alpha Is Beaming With Enthusiasm, Looking Forward To Coming Of Annual Conclave During Yule Tide.

The St. Louis Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha will be host to the General Convention of the Alpha Phi Alpha, Christmas. Approximately 1000 delegates and guests are expected to throng the homes and hotels of the city between December 23, 1922, and January 1, 1923. With St. Louis keeping open house during the holiday season the city is promised a round of thrills not remembered in the experience of the oldest citizens, even.

Delegates will come from all the large universities in the country at which Negro students are enrolled in appreciable numbers. Among these are men who have won honors in every phase of school life—scholastic and academic. In addition, men representing the highest success in active life will add force, wisdom and dignity to the sessions.

The twenty odd Alpha Phi Alpha men of St. Louis are enthusiastically working under the guidance of President Geo. W. Buckner to make the convention an unprecedented success. Machinery to insure pleasant and profitable sessions and an endless round of social activities has been put into operation, and already is heard the ringing of the bells to usher in the fifteenth annual conclave of this, the first and largest Negro greek letter fraternity, the greatest event on the Alpha Phi Alpha calendar.

All in all, the Epsilon Lambda Chapter has assumed a tremendous responsibility in acting as host to these hundreds of guests, but the enthusiasm evinced at the meeting of Thursday, Sept. 21, was such as to insure every success to the fifteenth annual convention of the Alpha Phi Alpha.

MASKED MEN KILL A NEGRO IN ABILENE, TEX.

No Cause Known For Murder Of Man With Reputation Of Being Hard-Worker And Harmless.

ABILENE, Tex., Sept. 27.—A searching investigation of the killing here shortly before midnight Sept. 9th, of Gover C. Everett, in a local hotel was ordered by Judge W. R. Ely in a special charge to the Taylor county grand jury last Thursday.

After declaring that all he knew of the murder was from newspaper reports, Judge Ely said: "A Negro was killed in a Negro rooming house in this city. A street contractor told me that he had known Everett for eleven years and that he was a hard working Negro and harmless. From what I gather from newspapers reports the man had retired early and about midnight he was killed. I notice in the papers that Negro witnesses testified that three or four masked men came to the hotel, went upstairs, a shot was fired, the masked men came down, and Everett was found dead.

"I will be frank and honest with you; the man who shot Everett is guilty of murder and should be punished. It is a bad blot on your town when men go out and wantonly kill in that way.

"There has not occured a crime since I have been on the bench so grave and one that deserves such earnest attention as this. I am blaming no man or no organization for this crime because I don't know who did the killing."

District Attorney Cunningham who has conducted an investigation of the affair, issued an appeal to all citizens who know anything of the murder or who might throw any light on it, to give the grand jury the facts.

Two Stitches Taken In The Heart Of 19 Year Old Boy

Associated Negro Press.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 27.—Two stitches were taken in the heart of Chas. Scott, 19 year old Negro, Tuesday night at Charity Hospital. This was the second time in the history of the institution that such an operation has been performed.

Scott was stabbed by Andrew Keno, the wound being three-quarters of an inch long and entered the cavity of the heart. The operation was performed by Dr. Peter Graffagni, acting superintendent of the hospital and required 18 minutes.

EASTERN GATE AT THE ODEON

Plans Being Perfected For A Most Spectacular Performance. Hard Practice For Last Round. Entire Cast In Action.

An unusual amount of interest is being manifested on the part of the public of the approaching play, "The Eastern Gate," which is to be given at the Odeon Thursday and Friday evenings, Oct. 12 and 13th.

The management positively guarantees this play to be the most spectacular production ever given by Negro artists anywhere in the country. Practice has already begun.

The complete cast of "The Eastern Gate," including the sixteen Chinese children, the "Wedding Chorus," costumers and members of the property committee will give the first rehearsal of the mammoth oriental production at the Odeon this Saturday night. Three other rehearsals will be given before the big show comes off.

Features.

Mr. J. Gerald Tyler has written a beautiful oriental song in which Mrs. Zelle Cole Evans, assisted by the "Wedding Chorus," will have an unusual opportunity for her mellifluent voice. Mrs. Myrtle Adams of professional stage experience, will act the part of "Moy," the piquant little Chinese maiden. The sixteen little members of the Chinese chorus who will assemble at the wedding have been specially trained by Miss Anita Williams, who has had special training in dancing in New York City this summer. Miss Williams will portray the part of "Bettee Su," while Misses Lucile Mosby and Hallie Tutt will render "Pettee Su" and "Knotso Yung." "Clack E Ho" offers Miss Doris James a special chance to captivate the audience with an unusual dramatic character.

Miss Anna Cooper and Adolph Angelus, who starred in "Broken Bars," will show to better advantage this year in their skit. Ernest Hutchinson as "G'Wang," the coolie, plays a most difficult part this year with unsurpassing ease and dignity.

Special oriental scenery has been painted for "The Eastern Gate." The entire setting of this production is that of a professional performance, and Harry McClain, general stage director, promises the audience on both evening performances far above those ever given anywhere in this country.

LABOR.

By Thos. Atkins.

Labor is the cure for the ills of life;
While one is tired, there's no time for strife;
Real life is found in lowly toil.
When hands and face we'll dare to soil.

Labor stills eyes passions and directs his mind;
It makes one thoughtful, gentle and kind;
It brings in luck every sense to bear,
And banishes every sordid thought or slavish fear.

SOCIAL CLUB DISBANDS AND DONATES CONTENTS OF TREASURY TO THE HOSPITAL

The Frau Frans, one of the pioneer ladies' social clubs in the city, met with Mrs. W. C. Maxwell, 4254 Lucky street on Thursday of last week and disbanded indefinitely. This is the club that, in a spirit of patriotism when our boys were called to France, abandoned its name many times up the chase of the Kaiser and was known as the "Thursday Club." The original name was reclaimed after the armistice.

In harmony with its many past activities for charity, the members donated the final contents of its treasury, $17.00, to the People's Hospital.

OLIVE CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH, KIRKWOOD.

A. S. Fields.

The sick of our church are still improving nicely. Mrs. E. D. Wheeler of West Monroe and Mr. Patrick Ming both are able to be up and do light work.

The people of Kirkwood are yet talking of the great meeting the men had on Men's Day two weeks ago.

Our services were very good last Sunday. The pastor preached from St. xMtt. 11:30. Text: For yoke is easy and burden light.

At 3 p. m. the pastor, in company with his wife, went to Rev. S. R. Stanley's Harvest Home Program.

The Allen League was called to order by the president, Mrs. S. A. Fishback, at 7 p. m. It was a fine meeting and was discussed by quite a few of the people that were present.

Stewardess Board No. 2 will have their baby contest Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Jane Davis Sept. 29. We trust the entire community will attend. October 1st is our fourth and last quarterly meeting for this conference year. We cordially invite the general public to come and assist us with their prayers and finance.

October 5th the Ladies' Aid will have a quilt contest at our church.

October 13th the Trustee Helpers will give a high class entertainment at our church.

October 8th is Women's Day at Olive Chapel.

Stewardess Board No. 2 entertained Stewardess Board No. 1, Lane Tabernacle C. M. E. Church, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

The Lookout Committe of our church also had a fine entertainment Saturday evening at the residence of Mrs. Susie Smith, Meacham Park.

Our Harvest Home services will be the 15th of October.

We are doing tangible work in Olive Chapel, and if you would like to be one in the number, come over and unite with us.

Y. M. C. A. BOY'S DIVISION OPENS FALL PROGRAM

The first fall class in Pine Street Y. M. C. A. Boy's Division and Ellisardville Y. M. C. A. Club for Boys will be held Monday October 2nd. This day will be in the finest program for boys ever offered by these Departments and one of the finest four-fold programs being offered any boys anywhere.

The "Midgets" (under 13 years) will be organized into "Y's Trail Rangers" the "Juniors" will be organized into Tribes of "Pioneers" with the world famous Christian Citizenship Training Program to guide it. Both programs will consist of handcraft, scout craft, woodcraft, camp craft, and intellectual, physical, social and religious activities.

The Seniors (16 to 18) will have a great time in their Senior Triangle Club. They will have three gymnastic and swimming classes a day in "Older Boys Problems and Christian Principles," health classes conducted by physicians, orchestra, gym teams, basket ball, hiking, camping and other fine features.

Many other clubs will be formed later in the Fall. The Summer Older Boys Triangle Club is among them.

The boys will have a big part in the Spring exhibition on Friday, October 6th, and they hope to see all of their friends and parents out.

The Cafeteria

The increased demand on our Cafeteria makes it necessary for, us to consider possible expansion. A special meeting of the board of Directors is called tonight to discuss plans for an additional service department. It will be of interest to report that the receipts for the past month have been the largest of any previous month and last Sunday was the largest day on record. With the very short time we hope to be able to accomodate our patrons in a much larger way.

REV. J. K. PARKER RETURNS FROM TRAVELS IN SOUTH

Rev. J. K. Parker has returned from his trip south where he had gone to attend the funeral of the late Dr. E. C. Morris, after which he visited Greenville and Lulu, Miss., and Memphis, Tenn.

The pastor was very ill with chills and fever while at Greenville. Through the excellent care of Rev. Parker's niece, Miss Evelyn Woods, and the attention given him by Rev. Lindsey and the Rev. J. H. Davenport and family, Rev. Parker was brought back to good health again.

The members of Pleasant Green Baptist Church wish to thank these friends through the Argus for the kindness shown their pastor while he was in a distant land.

Pleasant Green will hold its fall revival October 4th to November 5, 1922. The allied forces of the Kingdom of Christ are called upon to rally to this battlefield to help win a victory for our Lord.

Prayer service will be going on night and day during the revival services. Each soldier is asked to meet at the church every Sunday morning between the hours of 5 a. m. and 7:30 a. m. to receive sufficient grace to pass over this program for God and his Christ.

LANE TABERNACLE SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS.

By Fred Carter, Sr.

The Lane Tabernacle Sunday School Teacher, met in the basement of the church on Wednesday evening, Sept. 20, at the regular monthly meeting. Mr. A. L. Gardner, 2828 Walnut street, and teacher of the great Morning Star Class. It was one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year. There were 21 present. The meeting was called to order by Supt. Elmer E. Phelps at 9 o'clock p. m. After a few brief remarks by the superintendent, it was decided to make it a grand social affair, after which we were served with the most delicious refreshments. This meeting will long be remembered.

The faculty was very much honored by having Mrs. Clemmie Stumps, cousin of Mr. Gardner, and Mr. E. E. Phelps, superintendent, render their services as waiters on this occasion. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. N. O. Bracy, Mesdames L. B. Oliver, Ella Howell, A. Brown, Mattie Murphy, Misses Katie Smith, Cecille Oliver, Marjorie Scott, Lottie Middlebrooks, Nell Howell, Jennie Tyler, Messrs. Robert E. Wright, L. B. Reed, Jackson Bracy, A. L. Gardner, E. E. Phelps and Fred Carter, Mrs. Shobbird Gardner, Mistress of the home, came in and greeted the teachers before they departed.

SILVER LEAF TEMPLE NO. 141

It is a well-known fact that Elkdom stands second to none in the fraternal circles of St. Louis but of the temples of the Elks Clover Temple No. 141, I. B. P. O. E. of W. is the fastest growing one of all.

The members attribute its wonderful success and growth to the united and faithful services of our able and noble leader, Daughter Ruler Mamie Stafford who is being by all in less than two years of the temple was set up by Dr. and with 25 today the membership is past the one hundred mark.

Daughter Stafford is indeed a remarkable woman. Women of her type are not readily found in the circle of today. She is not only a leader in Elkdom but also in every where the spirit of her sex is concerned. By her example as well as from the moral point of view she has encouraged many noble and fine women to come into the Elks House she so honorably upholds and principles for which Elkdom stands.

Although we would be loath to lose her yet we would be glad to see the day when we could call her our beloved Daughter Ruler, Mamie Stafford.

STRANGE POWER

There is nothing of the mysterious supernatural or miraculous about the power within your being. You already have it. But you want to understand it, use it, control it, so that you can accomplish your desire. Grace Gray De Long "The Little White Mother," America's Illustrious Adviser has a system for your development and regulation, simple and so clear that you will wonder why you never before realized how near you were to a way out of your distress. If you are undecided, in doubt, unhappy, worried or troubled; if you would be more prosperous; if you are discretely seeking the better life for yourself and for persons with whom you are particular to be connected; if you will cooperate to win, then write to this beloved woman — state your case and make a request for a reading. You will be pleased with the results.

OBITUARY.

Allen Miller passed away at his home in Madison, Mo., Sunday, Sept. 17, 1922, age 73 years, 8 months, 27 days.

He was a conservative Christian and a kind and loving father.

He leaves four children, William of Detroit, Pearl of Madison, Alice Mitchell of St. Louis, Leona Holly of Moberly. Two grandchildren, Mae and Allen Mitchell of St. Louis, to mourn his departure.

'Twas hard to give him up. He's gone to the land of bliss. Oh! who would wish him back again in such a world as this.

ALICE MITCHELL.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear father who departed this life one year ago, September 26, 1921.

No one knows how we miss him,
Oh there is such a vacant place,
Oft we think we hear his footsteps,
Or,
We see his smiling face.
He has gone to brighter regions,
Safe from every grief and care
We shall meet again in Heaven and
Never more be parted there.
Angels guard you, darling father,
May your harp ring loud and clear
Leaving notes of love behind you
To the ones who love you here.

Sadly missed by,
Wife, Jennie M. Thompson and Sons.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, John D. Lang, who died Sept. 27th, 1920.

A precious one from us is gone;
A voice we love is still;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

Sadly missed by,
Mother, Sister and Brother—Adv.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear father, Thomas Allensworth, who departed this life October 1st, 1921. Surrounded by friends I am lonesome.

In the midst of pleasure I am blue;
A smile on my face, still a heartache,
Aching and longing for you.
Sadly missed by daughter, granddaughter and son-in-law.—Adv.

Mr. John J. Doyle,
Dear Sir:

I worked in the wash-room of a steam laundry, my feet were wet at all times and I contracted a very heavy cold that settled on my chest and lungs. I lost weight and strength rapidly and coughed all the time I grew very weak from night sweats.

My mother bought a bottle of Doyle's Tonic. After using it I felt much better and am gaining in weight. I feel that I will soon be able to work again.

Respectfully yours,
Herman Bell

Mr. Dear Mr. Doyle:

May 5, 1922 was the day the doctor called and said I was down with pneumonia and my case was serious, begone of a weak heart. This doctor and another doctor refused me any nutriment to keep up my strength on account of my heart condition.

Instead of this needed stimulant and better than any stimulant, a friend gave me your tonic. The tonic preserved my strength up to the day of the crisis. After the crisis, I kept on taking bottle after bottle of your tonic off and I returned to my old job at Scullin's Steel Works July 24, 1922.

Yours Truly,
Burke Dupree

ENTERTAINING VAUDEVILLE AT BOOKER WASHINGTON THEATRE.

Frank Tanzel opens the vaudeville program in a rush at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. He takes the house by storm and then puts over a parody and an eccentric dance. His monologue is full of fun and his song and dance finale is a good climax.

Bruce and Skinner are second with an excellent singing act. Madam Beatrice Bruce is featured in "I'll Forget You" and "He May Be Your Man But He Calls To See Me Sometime." Mr. Skinner sings "Love Will Find A Way." As a duet, "Leave Me With a Smile" is especially commendable. Good singing voices that blend harmoniously make this a very pleasing combination.

La Joy and La Joy, the Jew and the Maid is a talented team. Mr. La Joy is one of the best characters impersonators on the stage. His works is so typically exact that one can hardly realize he is not in truth the character he depicts. Their opening is a sketch on the trials of a landlord and a tenant. Its brimming full of real humor. Mr. La Joy scores a hit with his dog song and the lady sings and dances herself into the favor of the audience. The team closes strong.

Sparrow and Sparrow close the show. Bennie Sparrow, the male member of this team, is an old St. Louis boy and lays claim to being the first local son to put on vaudeville here. This was in 1905 during the days of Preston's theatre. He left St. Louis in 1906 and his engagement this week is the first in sixteen years. He is a finished comedian and is scoring a big hit with a lively song and dance, followed with burlesque pathos. Mr. Sparrow then sings and does an eccentric dance that hits the funny bone. The female member scores a hit with "Strolling" and a good dance. The cycle of buck dancing, by the team at the end, leaves the house screaming.

VEILED PROPHET WILL BE AT JAZZLAND TUESDAY NIGHT

The Fourth Annual Veiled Prophet Ball will be given at Jazzland next Tuesday night October 3. His mysterious honor, The Prophet, will be the guest of the assemblage and select the Queen and six maids who will rule over the spirit of joviality during the evening.

The identity of the Prophet will remain a secret until the ceremonies which precede the Grand Ball.

NEXT WEEK AT THE B. W.

Another good vaudeville program has been booked for the Booker Washington Theatre next week. On the bill will be Esther Bigeau the fabulous singing soubrette; Ollie Young with an entertaining novelty; Bell and Bell, and Rhodes and Jenkins two crack-a-jack doubles. Monday will be "Pay Day" for the patrons, when every one entering the theatre will receive an envelope containing some sum of money from 1c to $5. Trading stamps to $40 in value or passes. Tuesday nights first show will start just after the Veiled Prophet Parade passes the doors.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

"Always The Woman," "The Sheik Of Araby" And "Don't Doubt Your Wife." At Star

Bettie Compson in "Always The Woman" will be the feature at the Star Theatre this Saturday. It is a throbbing, pulsating picturesque love romance, with heroes and villains of various kinds and races. Its settings are unusual and picturesque and afford a background to the rapid action which is always pleasing to the eye.

On Sunday, H. B. Warner will be seen in "The Sheik of Araby." The production depicts in vivid drama the sweep of the sands, the color and picturesqueness of the desert domains. It is loaded with gripping action and glowing romance. It is generally reported to be one of the best of all the Sheik stories, the popularity of which among readers of fiction and lovers of the photoplay has gripped the civilized world.

A Double program including "Mr. Barnes of New York" and "Let Katy Do It" will be offered on Veiled Prophet day and night.

On Thursday and Friday, Leah Baird will be seen in "Don't Doubt Your Wife." It is a domestic drama, an original story by Miss Baird in which she plays the role of a wife who, to be happy, needs to play. Edward Peil is the husband, a self-made business man who loves his wife, but neglects to tell her so. Emory Johnson is the rich young idler who never could understand why she had not chosen him for her husband. A wonderfully staged night rainstorm adds thrills and complications to the plot.

"Home Talent," "The Prodigal Judge" "Bits Of Life" And "Blood And Sand" At The Comet

The Comet Theatre offers a double bill at bargain prices this Sunday. Charles Jones will be presented in "Trooper O'Neil," a thrilling western with plenty of gun excitement. The other feature will be Mack Sennett's five-part comedy, "Home Talent." Ben Turpin, Charlie Murray, James Finlayson, Dot Farley, Eddie Gribbon, Kalla Pasha and Mildred June are some of the principal contributors to the fun while Phyllis Haver plays a part that demands the expressiveness of legitimate art.

On Monday, the feature will be "The Prodigal Judge." The story deals with the old South, the South of 1855, when slavery and corn whisky were still permitted by the Constitution. The cast is headed by Jean Paige. Through a V. P. Day, Wesley Barry and Lon Chaney will be presented in "Bits of Life." It is a decided novelty in the way of motion picture entertainment, inasmuch as it presents four separate and distinct stories, which are combined in such a way that the same strong dramatic theme runs through the entire production.

Next Thursday and Friday, the Comet will present Rudolph Valentino in "Blood and Sand" Sensational to the limit in this great Ibanez story of the life and loves of a young bullfighter, are those scenes in which Mr. Valentino does sword and cape play before picked animals of Senor Minra the Duke of Veragua and the Marquise of Saltillo the three leading bull breeders in Spain. The development of Juan Gallardo from a ragged urchin to a favorite of his country and his loves for two women are the basis of an intensely interesting story.

"The Song Of Life," "The Sea Lion" And "Divorce Coupons." Jestamere

The feature at the Jestamere Theatre on Sunday and Monday will be, "The Song of Life." The plot centers around a white-haired woman, who years after he has parted from home and husband because of her hatred for housework, finds her own son's wife despising the same homely tasks which brought unhappiness into her own life. The young wife obtains outside employment so that she may earn money to pay the elderly woman to do the housework. As a result of this change the husband becomes jealous of an other man. A dramatic climax takes place in which mother-love brings back happiness out of chaos. Gaston Glass is seen in the leading male role as the husband and Grace Darmond as the frivolous wife.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Hobart Bosworth will be seen in "The Sea Lion." It shows Bosworth in the role of Nels Nelson, Iron ruler of "The Lair," a whaler that has become notorious for its discipline. Unusual thrills are shown in several scenes of the picture notably the harpooning of whales, the storm in mid-ocean, the fight with the mutinous crew and rescue that marks the final episode of the picture.

Corrine Griffith in "Divorce Coupons," will be presented on next Friday and Saturday. It tells the story of a young girl who feels there is no opportunity in the country and marries a wealthy man with a view of divorcing him and securing alimony. She learns, however, that she really loves the man she married and when complications arise which threaten to destroy her happiness she fights like a tigress and wins after a tragedy has occurred.

"Just Around The Corner," "Queen Of The Turf" And "Gas-Oil-Water At The Olympia

Margaret Seddon, Lewis Sargent, Sigrid Holmquist and Fred C. Thompson have the leading roles in "Just Around the Corner," a Paramount picture which comes to the Olympia theatre on this Saturday. Fannie Hurst wrote the story and Frances Marion did the scenario and directed the picture. "Just Around the Corner" relates the story of a poor family—mother, daughter and son—, their woes, their joys their smiles, their tears, struggles and ultimate triumph. "Queen of the Turf" a racing melodrama will be shown on Sunday. It is a fast-moving tale of the turf, replete with adventure and romance and full of action as the big racing scene with which it ends. An aeroplane also plays an important part in the story, carrying Bobbie swiftly to the side of her wounded brother in a hospital from where she makes her fiery dash by motor to the race track just in time for the big event. The racing scene, of course, has the big punch. It is done with remarkable fidelity to detail. Charles Ray will be presented in "Gas, Oil and Water" on Thursday. It is a mixture of comedy and drama dealing with secret service work along the Mexican border. The star gives his unusual intimate mannerisms as the sleuth who conceals his identity in the management of a one-horse town garage.

"The Sheik Of Araby," "Barb-Wire" And "The Fatal Marriage" At The Casino

"The Sheik of Araby" will be the feature at the Casino Theatre this Saturday. The picture is filled with thrills too numerous to mention. H. B. Warner, the distinguished star of the stage and screen appears as the Sheik—about whom the great song hit was written—and he will picture brilliantly to life all the characters and vivid atmosphere of the tremendously popular melody. Barbara Castleton and Wedgewood Nowell appear in support of Mr. Warner.

Jack Hoxie will be presented in "Barb-Wire" on Sunday. Its a typical Hoxie thriller with a new real surprise for the movie fans.

Next Wednesday, Lillian Gish and Wallace Reid will be presented in "The Fatal Marriage." It is the story of "Enoch Arden" by Tennyson. The shipwreck, after which Enoch becomes a castaway for many years on an uncharted island and is thought to be dead by his wife, has been reproduced by D. W. Griffith with his customary attention to detail. The final fatal marriage, the big ship beneath the waves is a scene of tremendous drama. The home-coming of Enoch who returns to his old town with face grimed with a thick beard, only to find his sweet-faced little wife wedded to an old suitor, played by Wallace Reid, is an episode of powerful heart appeal. There are other keenly interesting situations. The wedding of Annie, who supposes she is a widow, and his Phillip, who has loved in its simplicity of joy and tragedy.

"Bought And Paid For," "Beyond The Rocks" And "Toni" First" At The Lincoln

Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt, popular Paramount stars, are the featured players tonight and tomorrow, in a splendid William de Mille production which will be presented at the Lincoln Theatre Saturday. This is an exceptional picture, filled with drama, emotion and distinct appeal, and is well worth seeing. Astronomical romance with the Alps of Switzerland, the Gardens of Versailles in Paris and London estates as the background, directed by Elinor Glyn, and starring Gloria Swanson, in "Beyond the Rocks," is the special picture with an all star cast which will be presented at the Lincoln Theatre Sunday and Monday. The story widows love and romance, and is said to be one of the most delightful stories ever written by the famous author. Rudolph Valentino in "Blood and Sand" will be the offering at the Lincoln next Thursday. The story tells of the regeneration of a crook through the wiles of the daughter of a master crook. She apparently abets him in his carefully planned crime, but really aids him in building up a lucrative mate, and highly profitable business for the firm he originally intended to rob. The plot contains some ingenious twists, and is extremely absorbing.

"The Delicious Little Devil" And "One Clear Call" At Criterion

Mae Murray will be presented in "The Delicious Little Devil" at the Criterion Theatre This Sunday. It is a story of a girl of the slums who becomes a dancer in a fast cabaret solely on the strength of a lurid past of a famed Parisian dancer whom she impersonates. She is called upon it live up to this reputation, but succeeds in putting off the discovery of the fact that she is only playing a part, until the lover of the real Parisian drops in on the scene. She is rescued by a young chap who is madly in love with her. This role is played by Rudolph Valentino who does excellent work in a very difficult part. What happens when the Duke is about to expose her, unless she consents to accept his advances, makes this one of the most thrilling of all features.

Henry B. Walthall, Clarie Windsor and others will be presented in "One Clear Call" on Sunday. The plot of the photoplay is laid in a small town in Alabama where two men of strangely contrasting nature, are in love with the same woman, who in turn is in love with one of the men, but married to the other. With this atmosphere of gentility and breeding it combines every element of enchanting screen interest. Romance, pathos, comedy and suspense jumble together in a plot that involves an unusual triangle and rings with the appreciation of two men and a realization on the part of the woman beloved of both, of a sense of duty and marital obligations.

"OVER THE HILL" AT RETINA.

The Retina Theatre will present among the week's features "Over the Hill." This big heart interest drama has proven a sensation wherever shown. It is a picture that will appeal to all classes. Its theme is based on the story written here and has been dramatized by Miss Carpenter. The scenes are laid in the old New England village and the characters are typical of the old time folks. The story is a beautiful one and is told in a manner that will appeal to all. The cast is a splendid one and includes Mary Carr, Ben Alexander, Claire McDowell, Frankie Lee, Joseph Kilgour, Lucien Littlefield and Jane Keckley. The picture is a Thomas H. Ince production and is directed by Irvin Willat.

Ban On Mixed Bouts In New York State About Lifted

Special To The Argus—

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 27.—The fact that Danny Edwards, the colored bantamweight from the Pacific coast, has been matched to fight Irish Johnny Curtin at the Pioneer Athletic Club soon has created an interesting stir in boxing circles here. Many students of the game believe that this bout will mark the lifting of the unofficial ban against mixed bouts in New York state, and to this fact they are inclined to attach far-reaching significance.

For while there has been no opposition to mixed matches in New York, expressed in so many words, the actions of the entire boxing commission have led close followers of the sport to believe that no mixed bouts would be sanctioned. Indeed, it appeared that all promoters feared the far-reaching power of this body to such an extent that no effort was really made to promote bouts of a mixed nature.

And thus colored fighters despite the many assertions of the commission that they would sanction the bouts if all the rules were strictly adhered to, found it impossible to get work, and discovered that they were as effectually barred here as in states where there is a legal ban against mixed bouts.

Action Significant.

But the latest action of the big men in the boxing game, together with the unprecedented demand for a Willis-Dempsey meeting, and the willingness of a certain group of promoters to comply with the almost impossible demand of the commission, is regarded as the entering wedge to a championship match, with a colored man and a white man as the principals. It is thought that the New York public, which has not been used to mixed bouts, is being gradually educated to mixed matches, so that when the greatest of all matches of this type—the Willis-Dempsey affair—is announced it will meet with a minimum amount of opposition.

This angle of the situation can be taken for what it is worth, but the fact remains that the invisible ban is gradually being lifted from mixed bouts in this state.

City Editor Of Pittsburgh Courier Enters Law School

understanding. Others knew in part and loved in part; he comprehended the whole—the contemporaries thought in fractions, he in integers. He was the only one in forty millions who understood that the whole was greater than any of its parts. No local prejudices or sectional asperities could warp him from this axiomatic truth. The sure knowledge of the sage, the moral sense of the saint and the practical wisdom of the statesman were his. The hasty local surgeon advised immediate abolition of slavery as the cure for the cutting off and the casting away, but only because it is better that one member should perish than that the whole body be destroyed. No skillful surgeon will operate upon a patient until his body is built up to the point of endurance and resistance where it will withstand the shock of the operation.

"Free the slave, and free him now," cried the inflamed anti-slavery advocate. Because the delayed and accurate they accused him of moral indifference and cowardice. But they only saw in part and prophesied in part. Abraham Lincoln foresaw the outcome as a whole. What profit would have been an abortive attempt to free the Negro if the Union had been destroyed? "If I can save the Union by retaining slavery, I will do it. If I can save the Union by destroying slavery, I will do it." "If I can save the Union and make it free, I will do it." That was the utterance of a sagacious and far-seeing statesmanship. Abraham Lincoln's moral sense asserted itself and forced him to the issue of the freedom of the slaves, but his practical wisdom withstand the shock he issued the Emancipation Proclamation. He knew as none others knew when the psychological moment arrived. The proclamation was issued with a timeliness of intuitive wisdom, not to soon, nor yet too late.

The Negro race is accustomed to celebrate the first of January as the date of their deliverance, but the great word was issued on the 22nd of September and marked the beginning of all that we are and all that we hope to be on the American continent. Let every Negro with unalloyed devotion and reverence of spirit bow in honor of the name of Abraham Lincoln, the great Emancipator who freed the Negro and saved the nation.

IS KNOWLEDGE REALLY POWER?

Does Knowledge Of Material Drive A Man From God? What Is Education?

Shall we or shall we not educate our children? And if we do, where shall it be and with what? No doubt this question has arisen in many parents' hearts and will arise in many more.

Does a knowledge of material things drive a man from God? Not always. We know that a knowledge of material things does not necessarily draw a man to God. If it did our institutions of higher learning would be filled with Godliness which they surely are not. An evil man uses knowledge to do more evil and a good man uses it to do good. To the one knowledge is a curse and to the other a blessing. The danger lies not in the possession of the knowledge but in the use made of it. Shall the use of it is determined by the man himself.

Why should people be afraid of education? Is it possible because they are afraid of what education is? A carpenter wheels his chisel and likes his saw that they may cut better. An educated mind is a whetted and sharpened mind. Education is not so much a process of accumulating knowledge as a training of the mind by the process of studying. Very little of the mathematics and language studied is remembered but the mental habit of studying them has made the mind keen even tho the things studied are forgotten. And that mind so made keen is so much able and capable to overcome in the "struggle for existence."

Whether the keen mind becomes a curse or a blessing depends upon the man himself. The sharpened chisel or saw can do far better work for the carpenter than a dull one. But being sharpened they also become far more dangerous and effective for evil if used in that way. An educated mind sharpened and keen becomes an excellent tool for god in the hands of a yielded man led by the Holy Spirit and can accomplish far more than one less keen, but likewise in the hands of the Devil becomes an excellent tool for the destruction of the man himself or even possibly thousands of others.

The possession of knowledge rightly used never has hurt any one. Paul standing on Mars Hill and answering questioned concerning his so-called foreign doctrines and strange gods, brought to play all the diplomacy and brains that he possessed. And well it was that he did. He was speaking to men of knowledge and as a man of knowledge he met them. No ignorant, finite mind could ever have made any impression on that audience. He knew for one thing that it was against the laws of Athens to speak or teach concerning, or attempt to foster upon the people any foreign gods. He knew that Socrates, the venerable philosopher of old had been sentenced to drink the poison hemlock and died on being found guilty on this charge. So he made mention of finding in their temple an altar to the unknown God and instead of expounding to them concerning a new and strange God he told them about the one they already worshipped, although ignorant of His person and being. The leading of the Spirit was on his way but unless Paul had possessed this knowledge the Spirit could not have led him as He did. So Paul's knowledge of Greek history and customs because of the opening wedge for the successful preaching of the gospel in that region.

Daniel in the court of Nebuchadnezzar learned all that Babylon had to give and with this learning at his command was more than a match for, and became the master of the astrologers and soothsayers of the day. His education and culture gave him access to the courts of the greatest kings and empires and made his services to be in demand for almost a century. Through this he became a mighty pillar for the truth and a living exponent of the teaching of Jehovah—the God above all the gods—the Creator of Heaven and earth.

Moses as the son of Pharaoh's daughter was initiated into all of the mans and secret mysteries of Egypt. With 40 years of schooling in the desert to learn patience and to feel his own littleness he came back a messenger of the great God—I AM THAT I AM. And clothed with His spirit and possessing Egypt's secrets he became as a god to the Egyptians and the deliverer of his own people.

Isaiah in his day was a statesman and an advisor to kings. God's Spirit operating through him and upon him found a vessel of the highest order and the resulting message through him became of the highest order. An expert organist is limited in his message by the capacity of the instrument upon which he plays. Using an instrument of his efforts produce but a mediocre result, but using a large pipe organ he holds the whole audience spell-bound. The message of the Holy Spirit through a man is determined by that man's capacity. If his capacity is small his message is small. If large and the mind deep enough to handle the great revelations of the deep things of God then the Spirit's message and revelation through that man is in direct proportion to the capacity. Isaiah's message was what it was because his mind was capable of handling it. Likewise Paul was entrusted with the deepest mysteries of salvation because of all of the men of his day he was best fitted to receive it.

God prepared Moses, Isaiah, Daniel, Paul and Luther through laborious and educational development for the work that he had for them to do. Oh God give us great men with great minds like the men of old, dedicated and consecrated to Thy service. Lay upon the great detriment that here arises is that but few men with great minds are humble enough to give God the glory and men seeing God operate through a great mind or man are so apt to give that mind and man the glory rather than God. Therefore not many wise, not many noble, not many mighty are called.

Because the faith once for all delivered to the saints is in these days attacked from a scientific angle some people are damning and cursing everything scientific. But what is science? Nothing more or less than knowledge. This same scientific research and knowledge has given us all our inventions without which our present civilization would hardly exist one week. We freely use the products of scientific study every day in multitudes of forms. We use electricity in lighting, heating, telephone, telegraph, and wireless, mechanics in our transportation and machinery, chemistry in our farming, cooking and even eating. Why then rave against the study and research that gave us these things? The fact that a few mentally perverted men are using scientific knowledge to expound impossible theories is not sufficient cause for casting away all scientific truth or remaining ignorant.

Darwin and his followers used a certain arrangement of scientific facts in an attempt to prove that man and the apes have arisen from a lower form of animal life. Attacking this with only sarcasm and ridicule does not refute it. The only thing that from a scientific point of view can overthrow it is other scientific knowledge. And, science itself has provided this very weapon. Since Darwin's day Mendel's Law of Heredity has been discovered which totally sets at naught Darwin's arguments and overthrows his theories. Had Darwin known of this law his books never would have been written. So instead of his knowing to much he knew to little and this it may be said is true of those who still hold to his theories. So deeper scientific knowledge becomes Darwin's greatest antagonist and most successful enemy.

The theories and fallacies of misapplied scientific knowledge are not accepted by ignorance but rather by deeper science and knowledge correctly used. Many professing religion take great delight in heaping abuse upon all things scientific only to show their own ignorance and make themselves the laughing stock of thinking people. What they and others need is a real knowledge of facts as found in the Spirit of God's guidance they can come to sane and correct conclusions.

MARCUS GARVEY ISSUES 'MANIFESTO' CONCERNING SITUATION IN NEAR EAST

Advises Christian Negroes To Refrain From Fighting Mohammedan Negroes. If Threatened War Comes.

Associated Negro Press.

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 27. Marcus Garvey is on the rampage again This time it is the situation in the Near East that engages his august attention. He has "hot footed" into this controversy by issuing a message to the Negro peoples of the world, requesting that they stand together in the event of another war, and advising that Christian Negroes refrain from fighting Mohammedan Negroes. Garvey's message in part reads:

"The world is stirred once more with the news of battle. The Anglo-Saxon world will naturally stand by itself, but the millions of Negroes who make up the control of allied races are determined to stand together now and henceforth as a united race. We shall neither go forward nor backward in defense of others. But we shall stand solidly for ourselves for the freedom of our country, Africa.

"Some imagine that this new outbreak will be a precursor of a Holy War. The 400,000,000 Negroes of the world are not concerned in a Holy War, even though millions of our race are members of the Mohammedan faith and millions more are members of the Christian faith. The fight of the Negro is not with religion; the fight with the Negro is political injustice.

"Money is needed to put over the big programme. Your $1, $2, $5, $10, $20 will help materially at this time.

The Obstructionist

This class composes one third of the entire population of the human family in the world irrespective to creed or color. The Bolsheviks, radicals, malcontents, place hunters, self conceited, self-interested, thaw pickers, note hunters, fault finders, self opinionated, underground rail road workers, are always on the job in church and state. No progress in civilization along the line of building up Educational institutions, churches, science, art or discovery, has been accomplished without the finger prints of this class marking every stage in the world's history. They often make moves for a solution to solve some wealthy problem and then oppose its passage. They say and do not. They will climb to the highest heights or stoop to the lowest depths to carry out a selfish aim. No sacrifice is too great for them to make if the returns are for the self interested individual or group. In the church they are the first to propose plans for the financial and spiritual success, the first to stay away and raise the howl, "They want too much money." Then they run up a foul mouth lie, that it is too hot or too cold and often say "I can go to Heaven just as good outside the church as I can in it." Peter, whatsoever you loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven. They tried to obstruct Columbus and the Black man that discovered America. Flagler was told he could not drain the swamps of Florida and build the Florida East Coast Railroad thru to Key West, but he said it will be done. Then with faith and vim he tackled the thing that couldn't be done and he did it and he being dead, yet speaketh. Obstructionists laughed old man Plant out of court when he caught the vision and put in execution his plans to connect Florida, with the outside world by the way of the Atlantic Coast Line, but the genius and talent of this forerunner of a greater Florida lives in the memory and hearts of thousands today for his will and perseverance. Read history and you will see how Geo. Washington, the father of this country had to contend with the obstructionist in getting the Constitution of the United States born. And those who fail to be governed by the laws of the land and the constitution of the United States today whether north or south, east or west, and arrogate to themselves the rights to be Judge and Juror, self appointed administrators of the law and now and then catch and burn and lynch innocent and guilty citizens, and run some out of communities, are nothing but obstructors to righteous government and Christian civilization. Read St. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. No two wrongs can make a right. Then we run upon the communities where men and women with loose tongues stir the neighborhood by tale telling and lying, and those who sell whisky defy the law and flood government, desecrating the Sabbath and all other days. This class are obstructors to that precinct and its good name gets down. Any city or community is measured, marked and published by the leading events, and every day actions of its constituency, whether they be good or bad; and often times the ache and tears flow caused by the tongue and acts of that class of obstructionists. Ask yourself "Do I belong to this group?"

The Destructionist

The pale horse and his rider, what one leaves the other picks up. This second class composes another third of the human race and you are apt to run on members of this class in all walks of life, from a Bootblack to a Banker, Slothful, Lazy, Disinterested whose whole aim in life is to train their children to destroy year in and year out all their faithful husbands can make. They are "Big Little Folks" who never make any contribution of talent, genius or render any kind of service to civilization. Great consumers, but Mediocre Producers, and as citizens they try to dig down the foundation on which others have been for years building a character, and would delight to laugh at the fall. They knock the church of which they are members and if they go thru heat or cold, sick or well to meet and pay society dues, and half of the time it's only the rich and well-to-do that receive a just recognition or reward from most of the societies. No race can reach that degree of usefulness and independence thru this destructive agency as we have ours. In the world wide war, men buy $1500 silk shirts, and women $2200 high top shoes, and now that same class can't have their shoes half soled. The kind of element is destructive to us as a race in the commercial and business world. These fakers and destructive agents are in the oil land, real estate, business, pulpit and press and the school rooms are not immune from the sharks. Graft and greed on every corner; this is not for the honest, but for the destroyers. If our political rights have sold us out so often and to that extent that "the honest to God" men and women will refuse to vote, and freedom to redeem us and get back on the main line. So often you have heard people say, "I will rule this thing or ruin it." When the people learn that you may look for the latter. This same destructive force tackled Elijah. He said, 'Meet me on the Mount Carmel and I will show you the way. The reader knows the story.

Constructive

This last third of the world's population are those, who with faith in God, and the cause they represent and themselves, are optimists and go forth to fight the world's battles hungry, cramped and sometimes criticised, thru blood and tears they sow the seed, lay the foundation and plant the germs for mighty men, women and business. They saved others; themselves they could not save. The sepulchre's dark opened up the door and threw up a mighty way for the Church. All that one needs to know is that you are with the conductive forces and the destructive force majority must go. Sampson, the strongest slew a thousand Phillistines with the jawbone of an ass. Joshua stopped the sun on Gideon and the moon in the valley of Adjulon because they were constructive generals. Gideon ousted the Midianites and those obstructive forces vanished like dew drops before a midsummer sun. Queen Esther contrary to law and custom went into the King, to save her life and that of her race, after the destructive forces had secured the signature of the King to have the whole Nation mobbed. Truth with constructives tore down the decree. Christ met the opposing forces at Calvary, while Heaven gazed, earth chided and hell decided. The conflict was fierce and the battle raged, but He paid for the mortgage and then the obstructive and destructive forces said surely this must be the son of God.

Peter died with his head downward at bloody Nero's chopping block because he openly espoused the cause of Christianity. Paul set forth the cardinal principles and enunciated the doctrine of Christ so strong at Mars Hill and before the Lord of Rome, that finally in May he was beheaded. The workman ceased but the work goes on. John on Patmas lonely isle, rocked by waves and swept by storms, exiled by the destructive forces; in his panoramic vision caught the message, that gives to us the Church's impediments and virtues also the impetus that shall guide her thru all ages. Then swings his apocalyptic torch around and we see her final home coming with the saints marching and the King of kings and Lord of lords enthroned. Latimore, Ridley, Clinton, Luther, Clement, Hood, Turner, Wayman, Reber, Lane, Jones Lomax for the church; Douglas, Crummell, DeCortese, Walters, Alstork, Clements, Goler, Washington, Scarborough for the Educational arena, and in short thru all the walks of life and all the way up, they, the others part the combative, contender and pretender, the obstructionist, but they saved their race and the world and those who their race and the world serve will find the real constructives are

INTER-RACIAL CONFERENCE AT NASHVILLE, TENN

Special Rates Provided To Event For First Week In October. Conference Will Be Of National Scope.

Associated Negro Press.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 27.—The signs are plenty that the Inter-Racial Conference scheduled to take place during the first week in October in this city will be a big success. Inquiries from the several sections of the country makes this a certainty. This has obliged the local committee of arrangements to issue a statement regarding the rail rates that will be available to the large number of people who are anxious to attend the conference.

The committee has issued the following bulletin:

In order to obtain benefit of the reduced rates each delegate must first obtain identification certificates for use in purchasing their tickets at starting point. The way to secure identification certificate mentioned is to write at once to Dr. J. N. C. Coggins, Conference Director, headquarters Colored Y. M. C. A. Building Nashville, Tenn., giving name and address of himself (or herself) and name and address of any dependent member or his wife (or her) who plans to attend the Temperance, Public Morals And Law Enforcement Conference, (Interdenominational —Colored) to be held at Nashville, Tenn., October 3-6, inclusive.

Unless this identification certificate is sent from the headquarters (Colored Y. M. C. A., Nashville, Tenn.) and used by each delegate in purchasing his or her railroad ticket at the starting point (Before coming to the Convention) the special reduced round trip railroad rates will not be granted.

These special reduced railroad rates have been authorized on practically all lines thruout the country, including the Southeastern, Southwestern, Western, Central New England and Trunk Line Passenger Associations (excepting those stations on New Orleans Great Northern Line).

The fare for round trip tickets on all railroads will be one and one-half fare (from starting points Nashville and return. Tickets on sale from September 29 to October 5. Final return limit October 15 (that is, delegates must leave Nashville after the convention in time to return home by midnight of October 13th.)

In case of Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Louisiana, these special tickets will be placed on sale from September 29 to October 5, inclusive, with final return limit of October 13, 1922. In the case of Oklahoma and Texas tickets will be on sale from September 29 to October 4, inclusive, with final return limit October 14.

Western Passenger Association selling dates September 29 to October 5, inclusive, with final limit of October 13, 1922, from Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Northern Michigan, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin, also from Jules, Colo., Sept. 28 to Oct. inclusive with final return limit of October 14, 1922 from Colorado, (except Julesburg) Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.

The local committee at Nashville have made arrangements to care for the delegates attending the Law Enforcement Conference at the rate of $1.50 per day for each delegate.

optomists filled with faith in their race. They have a vision of arrest opportunities and make good. They buy land, build schools, churches homes, run farms, banks, grocery, drug shoe, and dry goods stores. They are first class railroading establishments, clean barber shops; they are always ready to register, pay their tax and vote. They contend for man's chance and are contented with no less; they delight to live so as to create healthy public sentiment, and to be counted a number one in all the walks of life, and now my dear reader, to what group of these three classes do you belong? Answer. Echo Answer. "Thirrh."

BACK NEARLY KILLED HER—FEELING BETTER THAN FOR YEARS

Little Rock, Ark.—"I have been going through the change of life for four years, and had all kinds of aches and pains, dizzy, foolish feeling in my head, had to stay in bed a part of the time, my back would nearly kill me. I was about to give up hope of ever being well again when a friend told me about Dr. Joseph's G. F. P. I got a bottle and before I had finished the first bottle I was feeling much better than I had for four long years. Too much cannot be said for this great female medicine. You may use this letter testimony any way you wish, also my picture."—Mrs. D. E. Newkirk, 314 Commerce.

There is another one of the thousands of cases where St. Joseph's G. F. P. has helplessed women's lives by relieving them. You can buy a bottle from your nearest dealer for $1.00. He will return your money if you are not satisfied after you have taken it.

By MARY MARSHALL DUFFEE

PRIVILEGES OF AGE

THERE are some older men and women who seem to think that just because they are full of years, as the old expression is, that they are exempt from many of the demands of good manners. Now this is true in some cases. For instance, if a man's eyesight is so poor that it is difficult to see in the street car he should certainly not try to get up for an old lady unless obviously she is feebler than he.

But old people are not privileged and they should remember that they are not privileged to be brutally frank. I think that this is one of the greatest and most frequent instances of bad manners among the old. They acquire a bluntness with years. Then they say to themselves: "Oh, what cares what I say anyway. They go ahead and do what they want to do whether I like it or not, so if I can have any fun out of telling them just what I think why shouldn't I take it?"

Alas, there are old women who tell their children that they think their children are the worst brought up children in the world, though as a matter of fact they dote on those very grandchildren, and women who tell their sons that their wives are the rawest housewives imaginable. Now this sort of thing is really rude and discourteous. If there is one thing that will make people indifferent to what old people say it is just this sort of frankness. First it hurts and after a while it simply gets to be monotonous. Young persons very properly look upon old age as an excuse for certain pieces of bad manners and lack of courtesy. Just as young people look upon youth as an excuse for certain pieces of rudeness. But the old man or woman should realize that it really is no very good excuse at all. If you want to go on living the best out of life don't acquire a lot of funny little old man or woman habits. Above all else be courteous. If there is one thing that makes an old person universally beloved and sought it is unfailing good nature and boundless courtesy.

WHY ?

DOES A GLOWWORM GLOW

THE glowworm, or "lightning bug" as the species found in the United States is generally known, is supplied with its tiny lantern in order to indicate the location of the female insect.

In the family of glowworms, found principally in England, the male is equipped with wings, while the female resembles a caterpillar and remains upon the ground. To permit her to attract her mate and also to point the way to their home, the female has been provided with a pale greenish light. At night, when the male is seen ground in the air, the female flashes her miniature lantern as a sort of guiding star to prevent his getting lost.

Members of the same species of beetle are also common in this country, where they are called "fireflies" or "lightning bugs." In the American variety, however, both sexes are equipped with wings, but the female is the only one who carries a light —and for the same reason as the glowworms, proper—to attract the attention of the male. The "glow" is only another manifestation of nature's continual attempt to make the female of the species attractive to the male.

STUTTERING MAN TRIES TO SELL GUN, IS JAILED

Preston News Service

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 27.—Zuvell Mackin who suffers from impediment of speech, was sentenced to spend 30 days in jail. At the trial M. K. Johndeclared: "He stuttered so badly I thought, before he could say a word up to me, I had disarmed him, and then he tried to sell me the gun."

"I didn't mean any harm," Mackin declared, almost unintelligibly. He explained that he arrived in Pittsburgh on September 3rd from Alabama with only $80 in his pockets and was robbed by some men in the Fields section, and being without money he tried to sell his revolver. "Before I could tell the man what I wanted he turned me over to the police" he finally stammered. He was sentenced to 30 days in jail on a charge of carrying concelled weapons.

FATALLY SHOT OVER A WOMAN.

Preston News Service

HOPE, Ark., Sept. 27.—Levi Anderson was shot and instantly killed by Herman Cooper here last Tuesday morning. The shooting is said to have occurred in the home of Wilson Muldrew. It is claimed that both men were seeking the hand of a prominent young lady, whose name has been withheld, in marriage. According to the police, Cooper is said to have chided the young lady for being attentive to man who was not industrious enough to have a job. The young lady saw Anderson the next evening and told him that she should have a job, as the rival had teased her about this and she felt very badly about it. This happened about two weeks ago. Anderson secured employment and Cooper would get a position, but first of all that he was going to settle with Cooper for making sneering remarks about him. Anderson went to the Muldrew home on Tuesday and while there Cooper came in and an argument ensued. Anderson is said to have drawn a pistol and fired at Cooper, missing him if so. Cooper grabbed a double barrel shot gun that was standing in the corner of the room and shot Anderson, the latter falling dead near the coffin home. Cooper left immediately after the shooting and has not been arrested. Cooper was the owner of the Ivory Handle Pomade here. Anderson was said to have been employed.

Should Rail Strikers Be Given Their Former Places?

Associated Negro Press.

NEW YORK CITY, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Under the caption, "Slide to Wonderland" the New York Wall Street Journal said recently regarding the matter of the shop strikers being given their former places in the service:

"Let your memory run off 10 a m between breakfast and the noon meal, leaving the dishes dirty and the kitchen a mess.

"And you hire to do the work another cook, who quarrels and serves in spite of the brickbats hurled by her predecessor picketing your front gate.

"And after six weeks' inability to shut off your meals the cook who left wants you to take her back and discharge the other who came to help you, saying that she had not quit your service, but merely suspended work and is still in your employ with her right to unmolested duty.

That explains the issue of today between the railroad managements and the striking shopmen. The women can understand it. But the managements, the politicians, common

LANE TABERNACLE

Newstead and Enright

Mrs. Annie Mae Payne, of 4035 Lawton avenue member of Lane Tabernacle and daughter of Mrs. Laura Chapelle crossed the "great divide" and was laid to rest from Lane Tabernacle last Sunday afternoon. A mound of beautiful floral wreaths came from the organizations of which she was a faithful member. Among them was the Trustee Auxiliary Board of Lane Tabernacle, and the Court of Calanthe. Rev. N. L. Smith said the flowers represented the quiet and beautiful life of the deceased. He paid high tribute to Mrs. Laura Chapelle, mother of Mrs. Payne who for many years has been an ardent worker of Senior Stewardess Board.

Just as shocking as his sermons was the annual installation of Lane Tabernacle officials presided over by Presiding Elder William (Shocking Bill) Crane last Tuesday evening. It was the second time Dr. Crane had installed Lane Tabernacle officials and the most touching. The officials presented Dr. Crane with a cash present of $50.00.

Men and women of Lane Tabernacle will contest one another in attendance and general collection Sunday morning and night. A special committee of ladies and gents will represent each side. The men's popularity contest promoted by the Good Samaritan club is growing rath er interesting. A group of ladies from the Good Samaritan Club will represent each contestant. The winner will receive a gold watch. Last Sunday closed three months hard work for the Sunday School. The Morning Star and Young Men's Bible Classes finished by dividing the banners. They Stars made 18 Gold Stars for the quarter, the New Progressives made five and the young men made three.

The New Progressives made a strong attempt to take the Punctuality Banner at the opening of Sunday School last Sunday but failed

"The Woman's Auxiliary our Joy," Lillie Lindsay, President.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Pastor Stevens was present last Sunday morning but did not preach. Quite a large number of the parish was out to look in his face. ti they could not shake his hand.

Rev. S. J. Branch held the congregation in rapt attention while he delivered the message from the text, "He that saveth his life shall lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake, shall save it." Sunday night his theme was "God's attitude toward the pretender." He gives such wonderful messages that when we reflect, it is hard to determine which was the best.

Last Friday night groups Nos. 19, 26 and 29 were out and conducted a lovely prayer meeting.

This coming Friday night, Groups Nos. 24, 25 and 28 will lead the Prayer and Praise Meeting.

Monday night the presidents of groups, Deacons and Deaconesses, met at the Pastor's home for the purpose of formulating plans for the "Mock Convention" to be held on the first ten days of November. A very enjoyable time was had. Refreshments were served to the delight of all.

Sunday School is growing under the leadership of Bro. Jos. P. Harris. B. Y. P. U. listened to a very interesting Missionary Paper, read by one of its workers.

Bro. G. W. King gave a Black Board illustration which was highly appreciated by the Union.

BEREAN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

3927 Pine St.

Next Sunday will be communion day. If Paul so appreciated the passover "I must by all means keep this feast" Surely our appreciation of this feast, celebrating a greater deliverance, is greater.

Our church is raising ten million dollars as a pension fund for the faithful servants of Jesus Christ when they shall have served the church at least thirty years. Mrs. Annie M. Malone has made a contribution of five hundred dollars to this fund. For a minister to know a modest pension is awaiting him is to rob the future of much of its menace.

The Sunday meeting was lively and optomistic. All glad to see President Colbert back.

Our Sunday School loves to sing. Praise is a high form of worship. That inward prompting.—how fine!

The session has put new guttering around the church, needed plumbing and other repairs done out of the tally. Contract has been let for work on the parsonage and for coal. Some of this is on faith that all pledges will be paid.

Make preparations for coming to the Lord's table. "Let a man examine himself."

UNION MEMORIAL NOTES

Do not forget the Sunday morning services start at 11 o'clock sharp. The organ prelude gets you into the spirit of the real services. Last Sunday was promotion day in the Sunday School. This Sunday will be rally day not only financially but also for membership. If you have not started since your vacation, start this Sunday. Our meetings on the "Diamond Jubilee" are still in session Monday night for the older people and Friday nights for the young people.

A good attendance at Sunday School at 9:00 a. m. Prayer meeting, at 10:45, was conducted by Brother Palmer. Hymn No. 226 was sung for the opening service at 11:00 a. m. Scripture lesson, 14th chapter of Numbers 1 to 10.

The pastor preached a wonderful and inspiring sermon to a large congregation. New members added. 4. Visiting preachers, 2. Local preachers present, 2.

The festival given at 3:00 p. m. by the Sunday School for the benefit of Christian Education was a grand success. Its beautiful solos, vocal and instrumental, and recitations so ably rendered were enjoyed by all present. Rev. Dr. Williams was present and responded with encouraging remarks on the success and good cause of the effort.

A splendid sermon at 8:00 p. m. by Rev. Claybrook marked a day of splendid service and good attendance.

YOU ARE ALWAYS PROUD OF YOUR TOWN

Preston News Service.

Most people boast of the things produced in their town. Did you ever stop to think of the thing in your town which does more to show the real progress you are making than anything else? If you have we are sure that you soon found out that it was your newspaper. The way for an outsider to tell just how live and active the people of a town are is by observing their newspaper. If it is full of advertising; brimfull of news of progressive activity among our people; contains strong race achievement; and news of racial activity for betterment and development, you can bet your sweet life that the people of the town are wideawake. The editor cannot do this alone. You business men must give him your advertisements and pay for them; the readers must pay their subscriptions, and everybody must let the editor know what he or she is doing for race progress. Stand by your paper as a co-operative manner and let the world know you are doing big things in your town.

NATIONAL FOODS ARE AN INTERESTING STUDY

Associated Negro Press.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 27.—What people eat is becoming a most important question," declares the Scientific of Yale University in a recent discussion of this matter. Continuing this authority states:

"National foods are a most interesting study. Scotland's food is oats, taken in "purridge" form. Why oats? Because they are hearting, and Scotland is a cool country. Ireland's national food is the potato. Why? Because Irish soil suits its cultivation. England's national food is roast beef. Why? Well—the English were ever a discovering race and the lighter always required red meat.

"The Hindu's natural food is rice, because it supplies in small form an extraordinary amount of energy and staying power. That is exactly what a hot country requires.

"The national food of Germany is pork—the fat pork—because pork is always the chosen food of the clever and stern.

"Our French friends have no outstanding national food but are the greatest vegetables eaters in the world. That, unfortunately, is a sign of loss of national virility. Historians and scientists have commented on the fact when investigating the decline and fall of nations.

"Italians like oily foods. That is because they are not great meat eaters, and they make up the deficiency of proteis and carbohydrates with oil.

"Russia's national food is rye. That is due to economic circumstances. It is easy to grow, cheap, and nourishing. It has been called "serf food," and that explains much.

"America has no national food; but it is queer to note how universal is the demand for prepared foods, quickly eaten and quickly digested. That indicates the "nation in a hurry."

"As nothing is said to distinguish the Negro from the other American elements, it is a fair presumption to feel that, despite the "color problem" the colored man and brother is also "in a hurry."

Associated Negro Press.

MACON, Ga., Sept. 27.—Federal Prohibition Agent Ed. Newberry and County Officer Wise Birdson and Will Moseley met in a profitable day when on their way to the city they captured a Buick touring car, two Negroes and a gallon of whiskey and following the car they found and destroyed a 50 gallon capacity still and 1000 gallons of sugar, meal bees.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 1

BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

LESSON TEXT—Luke 1:5-25, 57-63.

GOLDEN TEXT—He shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink.—Luke 1:15.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Isa. 40:3-5; Mal. 3:1-4.

PRIMARY TOPIC—An Angel Brings Good News.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Birth of John the Baptist.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Preparation for the Coming of Christ.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Place and Work of John the Baptist.

We are today entering upon a six months' course of study in the Gospel of Luke, whose general subject is "Jesus the World's Savior." Today's lesson concerns the birth of John the Baptist, the forerunner of Christ.

I. The Parents of John the Baptist (vv. 5-7).

1. When They Lived (v. 5). "In the days of Herod the King." They lived in a day when ungodliness was rife. The priestly school was very corrupt and the ruling classes were wicked. Zacharias and his wife lived in a time when it was not so easy to be godly.

2. Their Character (v. 6). They were righteous before God. To be righteous before God is a high tribute. Many appear to be righteous before men who are not righteous before God. Their lives were so mated that they walked in the commandments of the Lord blameless. How beautiful it is when husband and wife are united in the Lord and walk together in fellowship with God.

3. They Were Childless (v. 7). Though this godly couple were well mated and they possessed the joy of the Lord in their souls, there was a real lack in that home.

II. The Birth of John Promised (vv. 8-17).

1. By Whom (v. 11; cf. v. 19). The angel Gabriel appeared and made known the good news to Zacharias. This exalted being, the special messenger of God, was sent to make this disclosure.

2. When (vv. 8-14). While officiating as priest this good news came to him. Zacharias must have been definitely praying about this very matter (vv. 13). As he pursued incense, which typified prayer, the multitude without were praying.

3. Characteristics of the Child (vv. 15-17). (1) Shall be great in the sight of the Lord (v. 15). Though the people did not greatly esteem him he was highly esteemed by the Lord. This is infinitely better than if he had been greatly esteemed in the eyes of men or in his own eyes. This is the esteem for which we all should long and pray. (2) Shall drink neither wine nor strong drink (v. 15). The child shall become a Nazarite, separating himself from the sensuous things and dedicating himself to the service of the Lord. (3) Be filled with the Holy Ghost (v. 15). The energy of the divine Spirit would enable him to lead the people to repentance (v. 16). (4) Shall go in the spirit and power of Elijah (v. 17). In this power he was to prepare the people for the coming of the Savior and the salvation which He was to bring.

III. Zacharias Asking for a Sign (vv. 18-23).

Although the aged priest was earnestly praying for the salvation of Israel the gracious promise of the angel, which was the beginning of that salvation, staggered his faith. He was unable to believe that that for which he fondly hoped and prayed would be realized. The angel gave Zacharias a sign. He was smitten with dumbness which was to continue until the fulfilment of the promise. Because he refused to praise God in faith for this gracious promise God caused his tongue to be silent until the promise was fulfilled and his lips could open in thanksgiving and praise. Though he was thus rebuked, at the same time his faith was strengthened by the manifestation of the supernatural. God wants us to trust Him, to believe his promises, no matter how contrary to reason they may seem.

IV. The Promise Fulfilled (vv. 57-63).

When the time came for the birth of John, Elizabeth brought forth a son and the neighbors rejoiced with her. On the eighth day they circumcized the child and gave him a name according to the instruction of the angel (v. 13). The name John was contrary to the family custom. By means of writing Zacharias made known the name which he would have by divine instruction. At this time God opened the mouth of Zacharias and he offered up praise.

Youth and Age.

In my youth I thought of writing a satire on mankind; but now in my age I think I should write an apology for them.—Walpole.

Levity and Mercy.

When levity and mercy play for a kingdom, the gentler gamester is the soonest winner.—Shakespeare.

Heaven Often Smiles.

Heaven often smiles on mercy, even when the blow is severest.—Joanna Baillie.

A Recreation Congress.

By E. Tea Eyck.
Associated Negro Press.

Announcements are appearing thru several agencies of national influence that the Recreation Congress to be held in Atlantic City, October 9th to 12th, this year, will bring together the largest group of community leaders and national leaders that has ever assembled for the purpose of discussing methods to promote wholesome play and recreation in our various communities. Several hundred persons have already indicated their desire and purpose to attend this meeting, which is being fostered by a Recreation Congress committee, at 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, New York. While this movement to a very large degree is in terms of white people there are certain interesting questions on their tentative program which will be discussed; such as "planning a recreation program for "colored citizens;" "how far are they themselves participating in program-planning, money-raising," etc, etc?

While a number of colored leaders throughout the country and the public in general has been invited to attend we wonder to what extent this movement will appeal to the interest of our leaders generally and whether the significance and importance of the recreation movement has reached us either as a matter of adjustment in the recreational activities of adults, or as a plan for the welfare of our children.

Many of our churches are trying out so-called social work which includes several perceptional features which they are beginning to realize that unwholesome commercialized amusements in the community nullify the effect of an altogether formal church program. School folks with violin are also awakening to giving a somewhat wider greater consideration to play and other recreational activities because of their character building influences.

The last Recreative Congress was held in 1916, and in that year about $4,200,000 was spent for public recreation last year nearly nine million dollars was spent. In 1916 there were about 7,000 persons employed to direct play at various centers; last year over 11,000. These local recreation movements are financed sometimes by commissions or organizations of private character, but are increasingly stimulated by municipal fund.

Is the Negro taking any interest in this movement? Is he actively participating in the formation of its program? Does he know the facts in connection with his own local community? If these questions are not answered in the affirmative, we may be sure that we will not be participants in the benefits.

There is much to be learned from what may be said at the great National Recreation Congress next month.

Recreation officials, superintendents of parks, directors of community centers and settlements, church workers, leaders of boys' and girls' clubs, teachers of physical education, school superintendents, representatives of women's clubs and of local community service groups and other types will attend. May we be represented?

Home News For Home Folks.

By Chas. Cain.
Associated Negro Press

In my hand is a well-known colored newspaper. It has great black headlines about lynchings and Jim Crow laws.

Who reads this paper? Colored people; some whites, but not many. The paper is telling colored people that there are lynchings in this country. That is news.

There are many papers in the Philippines, in Central America, and the West Indies, in Egypt, India, South Africa, Syria. Each has shrieking headlines about the troubles of its people. And each is printed only for its people. Each expects the world to weep over its country's sorrows help it out of its difficulties; yet, in every one of these papers, as in this colored paper before me, there are little thoughtless lies learned from the white man—lies about the oppressed natives of other lands, the ignorant Negro, the bloody Turk, the uncivilized man-eating Filipino the dirty Hindu, the backward Egyptian. Each race, shut up in its own land, is shouting to itself about it troubles and expecting the world to listen, while, in each country the European or American exploiter is playing one race against another, one sect against another, maintaining his "law and preserving order." When there is a massacre by natives the white man tells the world about it. When there is a massacre by whites, as there was, for example in the papers of London, Paris, New York—headlines, such as these: "Natives Martires Murder Helpless Hayti." "Senates Slaughter Defenseless Civilians"? You do not. You see Marines Restore Order in Haiti"; "British End Riots; Arrest Agitators." And the circulars going for civilization and Christianity, colonist churches as well as white. And no doubt the Egyptians, and the Syrians, if they ever hear of the American race riots, will get to one another: Those American niggers must be a troublesome lot. Wonder how long it will take the United States to civilize them."

But I am wasting newspaper space. The Egyptian question is up to England and Egypt; it's none of the colored American's business. And the Mohammedans and no colored Christian ought to have anything to do with a Mohammedan. I ought to be minding the space for some better people, ought to be telling the colored people hereabout they're not treated very well. There are fourteen million colored people here, and if they go on fighting each other their troubles are enough; then ninety million white Americans will change their minds and habits some days, and everything will be peaceful.

And I'd better not tell the foreigners about the troubles of colored people, because foreigners have troubles of their own. But I am wasting space. And there's millions of them and they are getting millions of dollars and have colleges and the trouble of starting something new. And it saves their readers the trouble of correcting the false ideas they have picked up from the white man.

The Pessimism Of The Negro.

By Kelly Miller.
Associated Negro Press

Race suicide discredits the Creator and defeats the ends of creation. Man alone possesses this power. He is the only biological pervert who thwarts the purpose of his own existence. "Multiply, replenish, the earth, and subdue it" is the first and final command to all created things in the animal and vegetable kingdom. The struggle for existence and the survival of the fittest is the result of the endeavor of plant and animal to carry out this high decree. Man alone gives up the ghost and seeks surcease from suffering by self sterility. What a reflection upon the God who made him and gave him dominion over the earth and air and sea and all that in them is!

O! that there might be breathed a new in the nostrils of the Negro that primeval breath of Godhood. The Negro must believe that he is the child of God and joint heir to the divine Patrimony. The rights of humanity are alienable, of which no human creature can be divested by reason of race, color, condition, creed, or clime. Although recognition may be withheld and privileges denied for the while they can never be effaced or taken away. Only the craven soul can hypothecate his divine birthright.

"Though ye have lain among the pots yet shall ye be as doves with wings of silver and feathers of yellow gold."

Let the Negro reread Milton's "Paradise Lost" and study closely the character of his imaginary Satan, who is but the embodiment of the touch, and actions, Teutonic spirit

"The mind is its own place,
And of itself can make a heaven of hell, a hell of heaven."

All is not lost if the mind is not lost. The unconquerable will always finds hope in despondency and resolutions in despair. If there can only be injected in the minds of the Negro this mighty spirit of Milton's devil, he shall never again listen to a pessimistic wail counseling supine riddance to an unfavorable fate. That would be an infamy beneath the deepest downfall under the compulsion of supernal power. Satan's counsel to his overthrown host applies with special pertinency to the Negro of today.

"Awake, arise, or be forever fallen."

Weakness of will is the Negro's besetting sin. In the intellectual and sentimental features of mind he is neither deficient or inferior as compared with the highest established standards. His present backward status is due to volitional enfeeblement. The strongest appeal should be made to apply to the point of greatest weakness. Then away with the counsel, in prose or rhyme, which tends to compound this weakness of will.

The world of ours is full of iniquity. The progress of two thousand years of Christian grace has not sufficed to banish injustice and wrong. The rich and the poor, the strong and the feeble, the wise and the foolish, the white and non-white peoples of the earth are yoked together in unequal contest. But we are not left without hope. The forces of evil do not consist in the mightiness of might, but in the righteousness of right. This is the one divine event to which the whole creation moves. Herein lies the Negro's protective device and offensive philosophy.

Endurance is the dominant virtue that crowns the apex of the pyramid of human strivings. He that endureth to the end shall be saved.

All things in this life and in the life to be are reserved to him that overcometh.

In the meantime let us pray that Fenton Johnson, for the excited moment, was inebriated with the delirium of poetic fantasy, but that in his sobered mood he will repent his evil utterance and apologize for the insult to the God who made him and to the race which must bear the brunt of his insanity.

LYNCHING AND RAPE.

It seems to impress the Southerners in Congress that Negro leaders and papers, while denouncing lynching, are not in equal measure denounce "Negro rapists." It is because there is no such distinctive thing in this world as a class of "Negro rapists." The Negro will always denounce all rapists of whatever color or race they may be; and if he does so, he will find himself denouncing white men most of the time, for they do most of the raping. They do most of it, first because there are more white men in America than black men, and second, white men feel more nearly immune when they commit the crime, and so actually do more of it in proportion to their numbers. In one large city of the country more rapes was committed by white men in one year than by all the Negroes of the whole nation.

Why on earth then should Negroes emphasize "Negro rapists," unless it were broader to help along the lie that Negroes are peculiarly inclined to commit rapes?

Let these southern men also bear in mind: That Negro leaders do not denounce white rapists. The mobs or lynchers—and this in spite of the fact that white men do all the lynching. If Negroes did all the raping as white men all the lynching, there would be at least a little sense in singling out "Negro rapists" for special denunciation.

There never yet has been any need of legislation or denunciation in reference to Negro rapists, but there is always need of special attention to rapists of all breeds. And that Negro leaders or leading white men denounce "Negro rapists" simply plays into the hands of the Bare.

WHEN ALL WORK TOGETHER

In a small town in North Carolina, where a tent tabernacle had been destroyed by a storm the citizens of the town got together and built a wooden tabernacle, with a seating capacity of 1,500, in one day. The structure was used for a meeting the evening of that day. That shows that one can do anything if he will.

COMPETITORS ARE NOT ENEMIES

The man who thinks it is his business to defeat his competitors is wrong. His competitors are not his enemies. They happen to be workers in the same field. The most efficient competitor offers the greatest inspiration to the business man who is keen enough to see that his job is to serve his public. The wise man looks upon competitors as co-operators.

CURRENT AND OTHERWISE.

By W. H. A. Moore.
Associated Negro Press

Boy orators are growing more scarce. I know of no reason why they should become less visible unless it is the presence of the utterly undeniable fact that there never was a good reason advanced why they should ever be in the first place for that matter. They are, I think I see a new order of humane coming to the race's fore. Our young men are going into business. I have in mind the recent venture of one of Chicago's vigorously progressive young men who has discovered a virgin field of business activity for colored folks. He has organized a Casket Manufacturing and Funeral Supplies Company. At first flush this idea has a forbidding aspect. No one cares to face the casket and funeral situations until he or she is actually forced to do so. Nevertheless, Edward Ephraim, a twenty-four year old Negro of Chicago has wisely seen fit to line up the forelock and led him right up to a place where we must look him squarely in the face in a straight forward, practical way. Unfortunately, if you please, colored people have an unhappy way of dying. White people have no particular prejudice when it comes to the times of making money. Hence, they manufacture caskets and they even go the point of burying colored folks for no other reason than because there is money to it. We need many prosperous business men in our ranks. If Mr. Ephraim is manufacturing plants meets an essential need. I see no good reason why he should not be helped to accumulate a fortune in the business venture, that I believe he has wisely chosen to follow. But the real meat in the coco is that we need more of what this young, earnest, some Negro man has started out to get in substantial portions—money and plenty of it—so that we can do many more of the big things we are in the habit of talking so much about. And best of all he has chosen an honorable and dignified business in which to engage his fine qualities and native business equipment. The more men among us who go into legimate lines of business the more the race as a whole will be able to command and hold the respect of the mass of the American people. May the Ephraim tribe increase, is my deeply, earnest prayer.

I have had in mind the saying of an honest word or two concerning the Anthology of Negro Poetry compiled by James Wejdon Johnson. I am deterred by the fact that Mr. Johnson had the kindness of soul to include two poems from my typewriter in his compilation. I am conclusively in fear that the attitude I might feel obliged to assume toward the book would be determined a bit of jealousy on my part and therefore, would lead afar from what I have in mind is the right and helpful thing to do in a contemplation of his efforts. I am of the opinion that Professor Locke of Howard University is the man to give us an estimate of the book. The book is an interesting effort. I believe it to be a serious endeavor to give the American reading and thinking public a clear view of what the Negro has achieved in the realms of creative literature. Having my mind stoutly set in this direction. I hope that someone of the group possessing sound scholarship, will take the time to give us a study of the Anthology that will serve as a starting point for a more arresting work of the kind in the future. Dr. Locke does not write verse—God save him from the fate—at least. I have never had the fortune to read any of his production in this field of literary effort. What I want to get at is the need for someone of our own kind telling the truth about the book. I imagine Dr. Locke can do that very task acceptably and therefore without prejudice. I pray that his attention will be called to this matter.

The Stradford Theatre will be opened to the public sometime during the month of next May. If the present plans do not go awry Charles Gilpin will be the star to first appear on its stage. "John Brown, Kind" will likely be the play chosen for the occasion with Gilpin in the title role. It is sea to land story based on a poem written by your humble servant. Let us hope it will reach the high mark as a play that Charles Gilpin has attained as an actor. In that event the STRADFORD THEATRE will open most auspiciously.

Black Races, Peace Loving

PARIS, France, Sept. 27.—At a time when France is recruiting her army largely from colored men it is interesting to hear Francois Lebon's opinion of the subject. He says in L'Oeuvre: "During the war, central Africa, people with 2,900,000 inhabitants, produced 16,000 to 17,000 soldiers; West Africa, with 22,200,000 inhabitants gave us 163,662 men. The idea at once prevailed that we should have an almost inexhaust able reserve of men if France were to be the theatre of another aggression." The idea is quite wrong.

It has been said that the black race is especially well suited for warfare. If we are to believe the documents of Commander X, this is only true with certain tribes becoming more and more rare since peace reigns nearly everywhere on the black continent. The truth is that most of the natives do not like being soldiers. To try to make a soldier of a Lesango is, for instance quite unfitted for fighting. It seems too, that we have not quite done our duty toward the mutilated blacks. They seem to find great difficulty in getting their pensions caused partly, of course, by the great distance in their country.

DETROIT TIGERS AMERICAN LGUE. CLUB WILL PLAY ST. LOUIS STARS

Third Place Major League Club, With Regular Line-up, Will Play Colored Stars Mon., Tues., & Wed.

KAVANAUGH'S ALL STARS TO PLAY OUR BOYS SUN.

Organization Composed Of Diamond Stars From The White Southern League Will Be A Staunch Opponent For Bennett's Club.

The St. Louis Stars baseball club will go up against the hardest series of four games this year in beginning Sunday with Phil Kavanaugh's All Stars and following on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday against the Detroit Tigers of the American League. Both teams are composed of white players.

Kavanaugh's club consists of many stars from the Southern League in the lineup will be: Rhyne, ss, from Peoria; Murphy, 2b, from New Orleans; Reidy, 1b from Savannah; Bishoff, 1 f, from Joplin; Green, c, from New Orleans; Corrigan, c-1b, from Little Rock; Thole, c, from Rochester; Kerr, c, from Bridgeport; Werdon, pitcher, from Dallas and Gardner, pitcher, from Philadelphia Nationals. There is no doubt about this being a formidable array of talent to oppose the Colored Boys, and Sunday's game, starting at 2 o'clock sharp, is sure to be a thriller for the fans.

And Along Comes Detroit

Every person who has been glanced at the sport page in the daily papers this season knows what a dangerous team this years Detroit Tigers has been in the American League race for the pennant. The St. Louis Stars will face this club on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The regular Detroit lineup will take its position on the diamond at Stars' Park, except the mighty Cobb, who was hurt in the game against Pittsburgh Tuesday. The Detroits will be under the management of Bob Veach, the slugging left fielder. Our boys will have to face such mound artists as Dauss, Cole, Ehmke and Oldham. On our side we will have Charleston in center and Corr on the mound to strengthen Meyers, Bell and Oldham.

All games will be called at 3 p. m. The prices for the Detroit series will be: General admission, $1.00, boxes including admission, $1.50. On Tuesday's game should be late coming to an end, all the fans will have to do is walk a block to Lacledes avenue and see the Veiled Prophet's Parade.

ST. LOUIS STARS AND DETROIT BREAKS EVEN IN FIRST FOUR GAMES

The St. Louis Stars have split honors in the first four games played with the Detroit Stars beginning last Sunday. The games have been hard fought and the fans have been served thrill after thrill.

Meyers Wins Sunday

On Sunday the St. Louis Stars made their batting clothes on and hammered Holland for ten hits, and eight runs winning the game. Meyers was also on the mound for the locals and held the visitors with ease until the seventh inning, when the latter put on a storm and scored five runs on four hits, a hit batsman, a pair of sacrifices and an error. Another run on foul hits in the eighth inning put the score a seven all. The locals won the game in the eighth when pinch hitters Ray and Bennett singled and Holland cut loose a wild pitch, enabling Ray to come over with what ultimately proved to be the winning run.

The Stars started their scoring in the opening inning of the game. With two men out, Kennard doubled to right Blackwell sent a long fly to the same field and Kennard scored in first run. Blackwell stole second and scored on Jones's right field single. Dudley ruined the romance when he was out trying to stretch his hit. Smith to Warfield.

Another run on two home hits came in the second. Russell walked and was sacrificed to second on Miller's bunt. Holland to Wesley. Meyers attempted to play for Russell, when the latter overran the middle sack, but Warfield allowed the ball to roll to center field and Russell reached home on the break. Russell scored on Holt's infield out to Riggins to Wesley. Meyer fanned to end the inning.

St. Louis scored its one more in in third to make their total five. Hewitt was safe when Smith dropped his fly. He stole second and took third on McAdoo's sacrifice. Holland to Wesley. Dan Kennard rose to the occasion and banked the leather on the roof of the car shed for a home run, scoring Hewitt ahead of him.

Russell, not wishing to be outdone by Kennard, opened the fourth inning by placing the ball on the car shed for a round trip. Detroit scored one in the fifth for the first time in the game. Thomas arrived safely at first when Holt fumbled his grounder. Jones singled to center, Thomas stopping at second. Petway's drive to Russell was too hot to handle and the visiting receiver was credited with a hit. Thomas scored. Holland grounded to Petway to second, where he died when Lane rolled to Hewitt for the third out.

St. Louis added one more run in the sixth. Russell singled to right with one away. Russell stole second. Miller was safe on Lane's fumble, Russell holding second. Holt forced Miller, Riggins to Warfield. Meyers singled to center scoring Russell.

Detroit scored five runs in the seventh inning. Thomas was out by a pitched ball. Dewitt fumbled Jones' grounder and both runners were safe. Petway sacrificed, McAdoo misjudged Thomas scored on that play. Holland sacrificed Jones over the plate going out Meyers to McAdoo. Lane doubled to left. Riggins singled to right and Lane scored. Lane took second on passed ball. Warfield singled to right and Riggins scored. Wesley tripled to right and Warfield scored. Smith ended the wild inning with a pop foul to McAdoo. St. Louis failed to score in the seventh and Detroit tied the score in the eighth.

After Thomas was out on a foul to Holt, Jones doubled to center. Pet was cracked a hit off Holt's shins and Jones scored. Petway went out stealing. Kennard to Hewitt. Holland singled to center, Lane beat out a hit to the box. Riggins ended the rally with a pop to Hewitt.

The Stars won the game in the eighth when they scored their eighth and winning run. Russell was out when Ray, batting for Miller, singled to center. Holt took third on Bennett's single to center. Bennett had batted for Holt. Ray scored when Holland let loose a wild pitch. Score:

Bell Bombarded Monday

On Monday the Detroit boys evened up the series by slamming Bell for six runs in the first five innings of the game. The locals could do very little with Cooper and the visitors pounded over 9 to 2. Four successive hits in the first inning after two were out gave the visitors three runs. A pair of singles and a sacrifice gave them one more run in the second. A single by Wesley and Cooper's home run produced two more runs for Detroit in the fourth. St. Louis came to life in the fourth and scored once on Blackwell's single and Kennard's triple. Bell got into trouble again in the fifth and had the bags loaded with two men out when Oldham was sent to relieve him. Oldham retired the side and held the visitors scoreless for the remainder of the game.

St. Louis two other runs came in the fifth. Dudley opened the inning by striking by a pitched ball. Bennett batted for Miller and came through with a home run on the roof of the car shed. After that the locals had little chance to score as Cooper settled down and pitched great ball. Score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Detroit	2	1	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	5
St. Louis	0	0	0	1	2	0	0	0	0	3

Batteries—Cooper and Williams; Bell, Oldham and Kennard.

Hensley Loses Hard Game

Tuesday's game went to the visitors 4 to 3, in ten innings. "Eagle" Hensley was the star of the game and pitched stanton ball for nine innings. All the exception of the seventh inning when two errors in the field gave one by Base Umpire Holland gave the Michigan City athletes three unearned runs. It is true that Wesley socked the ball on the roof of the car shed in the tenth but inasmuch as Hensley should have went over 2 to 0 in the seventh innings, the tenth inning would never have been necessary.

It is a strange coincidence that Wesley figured in both plays, the one which allowed the St. Louis lads to tie the score in the ninth and the one which won the game in the tenth.

The locals scored two runs in the second inning on three hits, a sacrifice and Warfield's error. Russell singled to center. Miller sacrificed. Wesley to Thomas. Hensley was safe on Warfield's fumble. Hewitt lined to center for a single, Russell scoring. McAdoo hit to deep center, and when the ball went into the car shed he was sent back to second and Hewitt was forced to return to third. Hensley scored on the play.

Meanwhile, Hensley was mowing the opposition down with a monotonous regularity and only four hits, each in a separate inning, were made off his delivery up to the seventh inning. But then things began to happen. Holt fumbled Thomas' easy grounder, the runner reaching first ahead of the belated throw. Thomas got a long lead when Hensley foolishly wound up, and stole second with ease. Jones went out, Russell to McAdoo, a great play retiring the runner by a hair. Holland cracked a hit off "Eggie's" shin and Thomas scored. Watson hit one down the line, and when McAdoo knocked the ball out, the runner was safe, but Williams foolishly tried to score on the break and was out, McAdoo to Kennard. Watson went down to steal second and when Force failed to move, Kennard cut loose a throw to second. Watson overslid the bag and was two feet off the cushion, but Umpire Holland waved him safe. That break cost the local team the game, as it would have been the third out. Riggins tripled to right and Force and Watson scored. Warfield rolled to Holt to end the inning, but the damage had been done. Detroit was leading 3 to 2.

Then came the ninth and St. Louis tied the score when Wesley made a bad boot of Dudley's grounder. Blackwell scored the tying run. Blackwell had walked and stole second previous ly. In that inning Sam Bennett assumed the pinch-hitting role and, as usual, came through with a hit. This brave effort, however, was nullified when Ray struck out as Meyers, who ran for Bennett, was easy stealing.

In the tenth Wesley hit a home run on the roof of the car shed to win the game after two men were out.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	2	0	4

Batteries—Force, Holland and Williams; Hensley and Ray.

Meyers Wins Again

On Wednesday the St. Louis Stars evened up the series by winning 11 to 5. Meyers was on the hill for the locals and pitched great ball, holding the visitors to five hits. He was also for three blows in the first inning and held them hitless until the ninth when they nadle two hits. The locals mean, while pounded Wilson for fourteen hits and eleven runs. Bennett and McAdoo bit home runs. Bennett led the hitting attack for the locals with three hits in four times at bat.

Detroit started off with two runs in the opening inning. Watson fouled to Russell. Riggins singled to center. Warfield got a hit when his roller took a bad bound in front of Hewitt and he only doubled to center, scoring Riggins and Warfield. Riggins was out at third when he tried to stretch his hit, Dudley to Russell. Smith was grounded to McAdoo for the third out.

The local team scored four runs in the second inning. Blackwell fanned Bennett picked one out to his liking and planted the sphere on the roof of the car shed for a home run. Dudley and McAdoo sent singles to center field, the former scoring third on Meyers drive. Holt promptly scored the runners with a triple down the left field line and scored when Jones' return got away from Petway. Meyers and Russell were easy.

Meanwhile Meyers was mowing the Detroit batters down almost as fast as they came on, only one man reaching first and that on a walk in the seven innings between the first and second innings. In the fifth inning the locals took advantage of four pair of errors, and adding two hits to the fielding breaks, scored three runs.

Holt singled to center and took second on Meyers' neat sacrifice. Holt got to third when Riggins fumbled Russell's grounder. Hewitt went out Warfield to Wesley. Holt holding third. Kennard was purposely passed. Blackwell drifted an easy fly to Jones and when the latter dropped the ball Holt and Russell scored. Bennett singled to left, scoring Kennard, but Blackwell was out at third, Jones to Warfield.

The home team made four runs in the eighth which brought their total to eleven. Bennett was out when Dudley doubled to left. McAdoo hit one on the roof of the car shed for a home run scoring behind Doc. Holt popped to Wesley. Meyers walked. Russell singled to right, Meyers taking third. Russell took second on the throw to catch Meyers. Hewitt singled to center and Meyers and Russell registered.

The Detroit team put on a little storm in the ninth when four hits and a pair of infield errors gave them three runs. Williams batted for Watson and filed to Blackwell. Riggins was safe when Holt fumbled his grounder. Warfield singled to center, Riggins stopping at second. Wesley singled to right, scoring Riggins and putting Warfield on third. Wesley took second on the throwin. Smith reached first and Warfield scored when Hewitt fumbled the former's grounder. Wesley reaching third on the break. Thomas sent a long fly to Bennett and Wesley scored. Jones' fly to Bennett ended the game.

SIKI VICTORY MAKES A BLACK CHAMPION SURE

Wills And Siki, Two Dangerous Opponents For Dempsey To Meet. French Fans Idolize Black Native Of Senegal Who Battered Down Carpentier, The French Champion.

Smashing savagery and primitive good health grown out of an inheritance of hard work and perfect physique has again won over the vaunted science and ring generalship of a world's champion. Battling Siki, black Senegalese has proven himself a better fighter, stronger man and greater ring general than Georges Carpentier, until now the idol of France and light heavy champ of Europe.

Heavyweight Champ J. Dempsey must have had the blues when cable dispatches of the Siki-Carpentier fiasco began to arrive. Every sports writer and box fight dopester in the country knows that there is not a white man in the game fit to meet Dempsey—the same men know that Dempsey must meet some one and that soon. Georges Carpentier faded, the heavy champ could use him for an alibi and dodge Wills, dangerous colored contender.

Now here comes Siki, another black man, and of unknown possibilities, to worry the champ.

Siki's record is loaded with dynamite for Dempsey. The white champ has had only one fight in several years against a man who could take punishment and that was the set-up with Bill Brennan, December 14, 1920, when Dempsey knocked out Brennan in the twelfth round.

Dempsey's record is that of a man with a powerful punch. Siki's record is that of a man who can take unlimited punishment and who also has powerful punch. Dempsey is a slugging man eater, Siki is a punishment eating tiger.

Siki and Carpentier

The world was treated to an exhibition of more than a prize fight when the black Senegalese knocked out Carpentier in the sixth round of their championship bout near Paris last Sunday. French fairness and true sportsmanship was as much on exhibition as was the ability of two fighting machines.

Bernstein, the referee, seems to have forgotten both that he was in France and that the moving picture has made certain charges of foul difficult to sustain.

The fight opened with the colored man cautious and careful. With the first round the two fighters hustled to the center of the ring and into a clinch. Carpentier tried out his famous uppercut all the way from his another crouch. Siki wasn't there, however, adding two hits to the fielding breaks, scored three runs.

Holt singled to center and took second on Meyers' neat sacrifice. Holt got to third when Riggins fumbled Russell's grounder. Hewitt went out Warfield to Wesley. Holt holding third. Kennard was purposely passed. Blackwell drifted an easy fly to Jones and when the latter dropped the ball Holt and Russell scored. Bennett singled to left, scoring Kennard, but Blackwell was out at third, Jones to Warfield.

The home team made four runs in the eighth which brought their total to eleven. Bennett was out when Dudley doubled to left. McAdoo hit one on the roof of the car shed for a home run scoring behind Doc. Holt popped to Wesley. Meyers walked. Russell singled to right, Meyers taking third. Russell took second on the throw to catch Meyers. Hewitt singled to center and Meyers and Russell registered.

The Detroit team put on a little storm in the ninth when four hits and a pair of infield errors gave them three runs. Williams batted for Watson and filed to Blackwell. Riggins was safe when Holt fumbled his grounder. Warfield singled to center, Riggins stopping at second. Wesley singled to right, scoring Riggins and putting Warfield on third. Wesley took second on the throwin. Smith reached first and Warfield scored when Hewitt fumbled the former's grounder. Wesley reaching third on the break. Thomas sent a long fly to Bennett and Wesley scored. Jones' fly to Bennett ended the game.

RUN. They then advised him that inasmuch as the advertisement was built around him, that it would be best for him to start the race.

Johnson started the race, and quit after he had run five blocks. The announcement came out later that Johnson had quit after he had run five miles! Such Bosh! Could anyone with just a spoonful of common sense conceive of a national five-mile and ten-mile champion quitting after running five miles? And then, to make it appear worse, no excuse was given. A warrant and action. Open minded and fair-sport-lovers can readily see the motive for this underhand method of doublecrossing. Later Johnson won the five mile race handily.

Billy Carter Gets Decision Over Eddie Carver

Preston News Service

CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 27.—In one of the stiffest contests from start to finish Billy Carter, of Connellsville, Pa., got the decision over Eddie Carver, of Cleveland, lighter of Pittsburgh. During the first four rounds it seemed as though Carver had the best of the affray. At the beginning of the fifth session Carter settled into Eddie with all might and main, fighting like mad and managed to end a few stiff arguments. During the sixth, seventh and part of the eighth Carver managed to put up one of the cleverest defensive fights seen here in many moons. Many of the fans, however, thought that Carver should have been given the decision as his method of fighting deserved more scientific boxing than Carter's but the referee handed the decision to Carter.

While it was only the preliminary bout of the affair staged between Ketner and Landis, it showed up more sensational stuff than the main bout.

Announcement that Johnson, the Cleveland Negro, would run against Earl R. Johnson, the white champion, in the Detroit Tigers' baseball park, Detroit, Saturday, September 30, 1922, in the Ten Mile Championship Race of America, has created a sensation in athletic circles. Earl R. Johnson, the white champion, has been training for this race for the past two months. He has been clocked in the fastest time ever made by a white man in the ten mile distance. He is a product of the Detroit Y. M. C. A. and is a member of the Detroit Athletic Club. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where he was a star athlete. Earl R. Johnson, Middle-Distance Running Champion Double-Crossed In Detroit

Preston News Service

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 27.—Double-crossed and then subjected to untrue newspaper notoriety, Earl R. Johnson, three time national amateur champion, and the greatest middle-distance runner the country has ever known, was the victim of unscrupulous white sports agents here last Saturday.

Johnson, who won the 1921 Detroit News Marathon had been invited to take part in the race this year. He informed the race officials that he would not run the race unless the course be changed.

They then agreed to this, but Johnson reached Detroit he discovered that the course had not been changed. He protested, but the officials refused to change it. Johnson then refused to run, stating that the course would be ABSOLUTELY DEFICIENT in

SUMMER STARS WIN AGAIN

C. W. Georges' Summer Stars of So. St. Louis went to Kinloch Sunday and gave the Kinloch Stars a real beating, with Banetz Jackson pitching. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of the Summer Stars. It was a pitchers' battle between Jackson and Knight, the latter having the edge. Knight, for the Summer Stars, had his slow ball working to perfection. And his fast curves had them guessing. The hard-hitting Kinloch Stars were turned around at the drinking trough in most every inning. Score:

Summer	0	0	0	1	1	0	4	0	0	6
Kinloch	1	0	0	2	1	0	0	1	0	5

Batteries: Summer Stars—Knight and Boswell; Kinloch Stars—Jackson and Walto.
